THE UNIVERSITY

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte is one of a large number of new universities located in urban areas. The development of these new institutions near our nation's largest cities reflects the contemporary influence of urban life. The city is the laboratory of life in America today.

UNCC is located in the largest urban center of the two Carolinas. With a metropolitan population of almost 400,000, Charlotte ranks as the largest city in the Piedmont Crescent, an area which population experts predict will become the fifth largest urban complex in the nation by the turn of the century.

UNCC offers its students the opportunities to study and become involved in the problems of life in the city. Many distinguished American universities located in isolated areas are taking students to urban centers in order that they may study the city first hand, taking advantage of the wealth of cultural opportunities available only in urban surroundings.

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte is one of the campuses of the University of North Carolina system. Thus, while the University feels free to experiment and innovate, at the same time it has the ability to draw upon the wisdom and experience of years of tradition.

PURPOSE

No formal statement of purpose has been devised at UNCC; however, the following principles have been agreed upon:

Recognizing that knowledge is man's awareness of himself and the universe and that learning is the process of discovery which extends the individual's awareness, the University of North Carolina at Charlotte exists to provide an environment which encourages and nurtures the continuing process of discovery.

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte gives first priority to the development of excellence in undergraduate teaching. Moreover, the University is dedicated to provide both graduate and undergraduate instruction, as well as research opportunities, in the basic natural sciences, the social sciences, the humanities, the fine arts, teacher education and certain professional areas.

Responding to the needs of a rapidly urbanizing society in which it is situated, the University involves itself in intellectual and cultural exchange with the immediate community and the State of North Carolina.

In order that the University not limit its horizons to the boundary of its county, state or nation, however, there is an emphasis upon international issues with the realization that much of learning—language, literature, technology, the arts—is international in origin and scope.

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte is committed to the concept of lifelong learning and provides opportunities for educational enrichment and renewal to members of the public in addition to those enrolled in degree and credit programs.

In its relationship with students, faculty and staff members, alumni and the public, the University treats each person as an individual, respecting differences and guaranteeing individual rights of citizenship.

HISTORY

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte was created by the North Carolina General Assembly in 1965. The legislation made Charlotte College, UNCC's predecessor institution, the fourth campus of the consolidated University of North Carolina. In 1972, the University of North Carolina system was restructured, and UNCC became one of the 16 public senior institutions composing the system.

UNCC can trace its lineage to 1946 with the establishment of the Charlotte Center of the University of North Carolina. The center became Charlotte College in 1949. Offering a junior college curriculum, the College operated under the Charlotte Board of School Commissioners until 1958 when it became a part of the North Carolina community college system. In 1963, Charlotte College became a four-year institution.

Dr. D.W. Colvard was elected the first chancellor of the Charlotte campus on January 28, 1966, and the University awarded its first baccalaureate degrees in May of that year.

Dr. Bonnie E. Cone, who had brought the institution to university status as president of Charlotte College, later serving as acting chancellor, was appointed vice chancellor for student affairs and community relations. She became vice chancellor emerita on July 1, 1973, and was succeeded by Dr. Douglas M. Orr, Jr. Dr. William Hugh McEniry was appointed vice chancellor for academic affairs in 1967. Dr. McEniry died March 15, 1974, and Dr. Philip E. Hildreth was named vice chancellor for academic affairs. The position of business manager was upgraded to a vice chancellorship in 1971, and Louis W. Moelchert, Jr. was appointed to that position in 1972. A vice chancellorship for development was established that year, too, and Dr. William M. Britt was appointed to the position. The administrative structure was rounded out in 1974 with the appointment of Dr. Frank G. Dickey as the University's first provost.

To give leadership to the academic program and in the sharing of academic and planning responsibilities, division chairmen were appointed in the fall of 1968. When the University's academic divisions were converted into colleges in 1970, the division chairmen were appointed deans of their respective colleges. A director of graduate studies was named in the fall of that year.

THE CAMPUS

UNCC's campus is located eight miles north of downtown Charlotte on N.C. Highway 49 near its intersection with U.S. Highway 29, and adjoining Interstate 85.

The buildings stand on a rolling campus of forest, streams, ponds and fields comprising more than 1,000 acres. Distinctly contemporary in architecture and functional in use, the campus offers an attractive and comfortable setting in which the student may spend his college years. All facilities, except for some large activity areas, are air-conditioned.

ACCREDITATION

UNCC is fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the North Carolina Association of Colleges and and Universities, the North Carolina Board of Nursing and the National League for Nursing. The University's education program is approved for teacher certification by the North Carolina State Department of Education. UNCC is on the approved list of the American Chemical Society, and programs within the College of Engineering are accredited by the Engineers' Council for Professional Development.

The University is a member of the Council of Graduate Schools in the United States and the Conference of Southern Graduate Schools.

FACULTY

A team of outstanding educators has been assembled to give leadership to a basically young and highly qualified faculty. Faculty members at UNCC have accepted the challenges of building a new institution. They are willing to sacrifice the stability they might have found in established universities for the satisfaction of helping to build a new and modern university, one which is aware of and receptive to its commitment to the wider community it serves.

DEGREES

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte is authorized to award the following graduate degrees:

Master of Arts
  Geography
Master of Arts in Education
Master of Education
Master of Management
Master of Science
  Biology
  Chemistry

GRADUATE STUDY

Shortly after UNCC emerged as the fourth campus of the University of North Carolina system, the University's trustees authorized the new institution to "provide graduate and undergraduate instruction and research opportunities in the basic natural sciences, the social sciences, the humanities, the fine arts and teacher education."

Two graduate degree programs designed primarily for teachers in the public school system were approved in 1969. They were a Master of Education degree and a Master of Arts in Education degree with majors in English, history and mathematics.

A third graduate degree program was added in 1970 with the approval of the Master of Management degree program in the College of Business Administration.

The Master of Arts in Geography and Master of Science in Biology and Chemistry were initiated in the fall of 1973. Additional graduate degrees will be added as approval and funding are granted.

All of the graduate offerings at UNCC are designed so that persons can pursue their degree programs while continuing full-time employment. Courses are held in the late afternoon and evening and carry with them full residence credit.

THE CATALOG

The catalog is not an irrevocable contract. Regulations printed herein are subject to change by the faculty at any time. University regulations are policy statements to guide students, faculty and administrative officers in achieving the goals of the institution. Necessary interpretations of these policies will be made by the appropriate authority with the interests of the students and the institution in mind. Students are encouraged to seek information as they require it about the application of any policy.

NONDISCRIMINATION

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte will accept all qualified students, within budgetary limitations, without regard to race, creed, color or national origin and recruits faculty and staff and conducts all programs on the same basis.

HEALTH SERVICE

The University Health Service, housed in a building completed in 1971, is operated 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The new building has a capacity for 22 patients, with eight semi-private rooms and six private rooms. A physician is employed on a full-time basis. He has regular hours daily and is on call for emergencies. Registered nurses are on duty at all times.

The Health Service offers comprehensive care to all students with referral available when the services of a specialist are required.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

The University has a community-wide continuing education program that provides early morning, day, evening and weekend on-campus and off-campus offerings. Such programs may be non-credit but offering recertification credits for teachers. Conferences, institutes, short courses, workshops, seminars and regular evening or summer offerings are examples of continuing education programs. Many of these programs also offer graduate credit. Every effort is made to offer a wide variety of educational experiences or any course in the University curriculum at any suitable place and time for a sufficient number of interested students. The Office of Continuing Education, administered as part of the Institute for Urban Studies and Community Service, is open from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

EVENING PROGRAM

The University offers a well-rounded evening program consistent with its daytime classes. A substantial majority of the courses approved for graduate credit are available in the evening. Students may request any course in the catalog, and if the director finds there is sufficient demand, the courses will be offered. Classes are held from 4 p.m. through 10:30 p.m. The Office of Evening Programs is open from 11:30 a.m. through 5:30 p.m., or by appointment after 5:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday and during the day on Friday.

SUMMER SESSION

The Summer Session is designed to present courses of the same quality as those offered in the regular academic year. These courses—selected according to the needs of regular students, students transferring from other institutions and students from the community—are presented in two terms consisting of six weeks each and two short terms (see pages 9-11).

APPLICATION DATES

Due to the large number of applications the University is receiving and due to the rapid growth of this campus, the University may be required to announce an earlier cutoff date for applications. Unless such an announcement is made, applications may be submitted and completed according to the following schedule:

Term of Entry	Application Must Be Filed By	Application Must Be Completed By

ADMISSIONS

ELIGIBILITY TO REGISTER

Registration in courses offered at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte is limited to those students who have been properly admitted on the basis of an application filed on or before the appropriate application deadline.

Persons seeking application forms and information about graduate study should address inquiries to the Director of Graduate Studies, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, UNCC Station, Charlotte, North Carolina 28223.

Applications may be made for the regular semesters beginning in August and January and for the summer terms beginning in June and July. Applications for any term should be fully completed by announced deadlines and in no case later than one month before the opening of the term, to allow sufficient time for acquisition and processing of information required for admission.

The University considers all applications without regard to race, color or sex. The University reserves the right to withhold the admission of any applicant who fails to meet the general requirements for admission or the specific requirements listed for graduates.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION TO GRADUATE STUDY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHARLOTTE

A. Application in writing to the Director of Graduate Studies, University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

B. Possession of a bachelor's degree, or its equivalent, from an accredited college or university.

C. Submission of two official transcripts of all previous academic work attempted beyond the high school sent directly from each institution attended.

D. Submission of scores on the Aptitude Portion of the Graduate Record Examination or the Miller Analogies Test; scores on the Graduate Management Admission Test are required with the application for the Master of Management program. Applicants for the Master of Science in Biology may be admitted on the basis of the Aptitude Portion of the GRE or Miller Analogies Test but will be required to take the Advanced Graduate Record Examination in the field of concentration during their first semester in residence. Applicants for a degree program in Mathematics must also furnish score on the Doppelt Test of Mathematical Reasoning if the Miller Analogies Test is offered in lieu of the Aptitude Portion of the Graduate Record Examination.

E. In general, an overall quality point average of 2.50 (based on the four-point system) on all the applicant's previous work beyond the high school. The average of the major or basic courses prerequisite to the area of proposed graduate study should be 3.0 or better.

F. At least three letters of recommendation from persons familiar with the applicant's personal and professional qualifications.

G. An essay describing applicant's experience and objective in undertaking graduate study.

H. Such other evidence of achievement as may be required by the colleges or departments of major interest.

I. Evidence of good health.

J. Students who meet the foregoing requirements but do not wish to enroll in a specific degree program may be admitted to full standing as unclassified students.

K. Certain other applicants who satisfy prerequisites for specific courses may be admitted to those courses as non-degree students though they may not meet all the foregoing requirements. Students admitted as non-degree students who later wish to qualify for full standing must reapply for the new classification.

GENERAL CLASSIFICATION

Admission to one of these categories does not imply and should not be confused with later admission to candidacy for a graduate degree.

Full Standing

Applicants who meet the general requirements for admission to graduate study plus any specific requirements imposed by the college or department of academic concentration for the degree sought will be admitted to full standing.

Conditional Standing

Conditional admission to full standing may be granted to students who have:

a. general or special deficiencies which require remedial work;

b. degrees awarded as long as six years prior to admission; or

c. a less clearly predicted chance of success according to available criteria.

Each student granted admission conditionally will be evaluated by an advisory committee at the end of the first term in which the cumulative graduate credit attempted at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte equals or exceeds 12 semester hours.

Admission of Unclassified Students

Any student seeking admission to take a significant number of courses and who does not intend to seek a Master's degree should file a completed regular application form, together with all supporting data, in the Graduate Office prior to the application date for the term in which he wishes to enroll.

Non-Degree Status

Certain students who wish to take courses for certificate renewal, for transfer to another institution or for personal satisfaction may be admitted as Non-Degree students. This admission is for one term only.

A non-degree student who is subsequently admitted to full or conditional standing on the basis of an approved regular application may, with the permission of his adviser, apply a maximum of two courses acceptably completed in non-degree status toward a graduate degree at the University.

Readmission

Any student eligible to continue whose course of study is interrupted for one or more academic terms must apply for readmission. He should do so on a form furnished by the Graduate Office at least six weeks prior to the desired term of re-entry.

NON-MATRICULATION

An admitted applicant who fails to enroll for the term to which admitted is presumed to have withdrawn his application. The application may be reinstated by written request to the director of graduate studies at least six weeks prior to the term in which the applicant desires to register.

Criteria for Continued Enrollment

A student in any graduate program is required to maintain satisfactory progress toward his degree. Continued enrollment is at all times subject to review on the basis of academic record and of actions with regard to observance of University rules and regulations.

Students admitted to full standing will normally be permitted to re-enroll in successive terms, subject to satisfactory performance on course work and to load limitations imposed by their employers and the University. However, they must complete formal registration within the designated registration period. A student admitted conditionally to full standing will be permitted to continue, subject to satisfactory academic performance, until he has attempted 12 semester hours of graduate course work, at which time admission status will be reviewed by the major department and he will be advised as to his eligibilty to continue.

Students admitted to non-degree status are admitted for one semester only and should fulfill requirements for admission to full standing by the application date for the following term if they wish to take additional course work.

Readmission

Students in good standing or students who are accepted into a program but do not enroll in the semester for which they are admitted or whose enrollment is interrupted for one or more academic terms should apply for readmission at least six weeks prior to the beginning of the term in which they plan to re-enroll, on a form furnished by the Graduate Office. Such applications will normally be granted without question.

Students whose enrollment is terminated for academic reasons may request readmission under the following procedures: The student will be notified of the termination of his enrollment in the graduate program by the director of graduate studies. The student will be expected to initiate the reapplication procedure by applying for readmission through his major department. Such application must be accompanied by a $10 application fee, which is not refundable. The department will designate a Readmission Committee to consider the student's appeal for readmission. The committee will be composed of faculty members other than the faculty member(s) who assigned the grades of C or U. The Readmission Committee shall recommend to the director of graduate studies that the student either be reinstated or dropped from the program. The Readmission Committee will decide each case on its individual merits.

ADMISSION OF TRANSIENT STUDENTS

Students enrolled at other colleges and universities who have the written permission from their institutions to take specified courses at the University in a given semester or summer term may be enrolled as transient non-degree students.

ADMISSION OF AUDITORS

Any student eligible for admission may register for any class for audit. The application procedure and fees are the same as for classes taken for University credit.

The participation of auditors in class discussion and in tests or examinations is optional with the instructor. Auditors receive no University credit. They are, however, expected to attend class regularly. Notation of an audited class on the student's permanent record is made, but no grades will be given.

Adding or dropping an audit course is governed by the same procedures as adding or dropping a course for credit.

DEGREES OFFERED

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte offers the following graduate degrees:

Master of Arts (M.A.)
College of Social and Behavioral Sciences
Geography

Master of Arts in Education (M.A.Ed.)
College of Humanities
English
History
College of Science and Mathematics
Mathematics

Master of Education (M.Ed.)
College of Human Development and Learning

Master of Management (M.M.)
College of Business Administration

Master of Science (M.S.)
College of Science and Mathematics
Biology
Chemistry

MASTER OF ARTS IN GEOGRAPHY

The M.A. in Geography is designed to prepare individuals to apply the concepts and analytical methods of modern geography to understanding our complex and rapidly changing world. Graduates of the program will be prepared to work as professionals in areas such as urban and regional planning, locational analysis, teaching, marketing research, cartography and environmental problems.

A. Admission

The M.A. in Geography is open to all who can fulfill the general requirements for admission to graduate study at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, as stated in the Graduate Catalog. In addition they must show promise of being able to successfully complete the program. An undergraduate major in Geography is not required, but competence in the basic concepts and methodologies of Geography is assumed. All incoming graduate students will be required to take a diagnostic examination during their first semester in residence. The results of the examination will be used to help identify deficiencies before establishing an individual program of study. The examination will cover the material offered in the five courses required for the undergraduate major: ES 101 (Earth-Science-Geography), GGY 102 (World Regional), GGY 201 (Economic), GGY 202 (Cartography) and GGY 203 (Research). Competence in Cartography and Research Methods can also be established by having taken those courses or equivalents.

Students may enter during any semester, but applications for full admission normally must be completed by the published deadline. All applications for admission that satisfy general University admission requirements will be reviewed by a Departmental Graduate Advisory Committee for a final decision. Upon admission each student will be assigned to an advisor who will work with the student in designing a program of study. All potential applicants are encouraged to visit the department for an interview.

B. Course Requirements

The M.A. in Geography requires a minimum of 36 semester hours of graduate credits. GGY 600, 615-616 and 690-691 will be required of all students. Up to 12 hours may be taken in related work.

Required Courses

GGY 600	6 semester hours
GGY 615	3 semester hours
GGY 616	3 semester hours
GGY 690-691	6 semester hours

Elective Courses

Other 600-level courses in geography and earth sciences	6 (minimum)
Other courses in geography and/or related subjects	12 (maximum)
Total	36 semester hours

C. Internships

Most students will work as interns in a public or private agency. This work will take place toward the end of a student's program. The departmental internship director will assist students and faculty advisors in placing the student in an internship position that best relates to the interests of the student. The purpose of the internship is to expose the student to the problems and activities of the community and for the student to have the opportunity to apply geographic theory, technique and knowledge to real life practices. The student intern will work on a specific project under the supervision of both the sponsor and a faculty advisor. The results of the internship project will form the basis for the Individual Research Project report. The internship is not required and will be arranged only when it is possible to find a sponsoring company or agency that is willing to support research in the area of the student's interest. If a suitable internship cannot be arranged, the student will be expected to execute an independent research project at the level of a thesis in order to satisfy the 690-691 course requirement.

D. Transfer Credit

Six semester hours of coursework may be accepted for transfer from other accredited institutions. Course credit may be earned by examination as well. Transfer credits will not be accepted automatically. In any case, transfer credits, related work or credits earned through examination may not together exceed a total of 12 of the minimum 36 hours required.

E. Continued Enrollment

The progress of each student will be reviewed every semester by the departmental Graduate Advisory Committee and by the student's advisor. Continued enrollment will require a favorable recommendation by the Committee and the advisor. Prompt removal of any entrance deficiencies will be a major criterion for continued enrollment.

F. Time Limits

All work offered for the M.A. degree must be completed within a five-year period.

G. Final Examination

Each student must pass a comprehensive examination over both the discipline generally and in defense of the individual research report, as appropriate. The examination may be both written and oral.

H. Admission to Candidacy and Application for Degree

General academic regulations apply for admission to candidacy for the degree and the application for degree.

MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION

The Master of Arts in Education degree program is designed especially for secondary school teachers interested in professional growth and graduate certification in a selected teaching field. This program of studies is coordinated as an inter-disciplinary program between the college and department of the major teaching field and the College of Human Development and Learning. Emphasis in this program is given to developing depth and breadth in a major teaching field in relation to the professional growth and role of the teacher. The requirements of the program of studies include a major of 18 semester hours of graduate credit in the selected teaching field, six semester hours of graduate credit in Human Development and Learning and six semester hours of electives in the teaching field, Human Development and Learning or a third department. It is strongly recommended that candidates completing only six semester hours of credit in Human Development and Learning select HDL 600 and HDL 620.

For this degree program, the adviser shall be assigned from the department of the major. An adviser from the College of Human Development and Learning may also be assigned.

Special Admission Requirements

For admission to a degree program leading to the Master of Arts in Education, each applicant must show evidence of demonstrated or potential capacity to profit from graduate study in his chosen academic area and in professional education. He must fulfill the following general requirements and all special departmental requirements as listed below:

1. Approved undergraduate work in the area of academic interest.

2. Evidence of satisfactory scope and quality point average in undergraduate courses in professional education.

3. Possession of a North Carolina Class "A" teacher's certificate or the equivalent. An applicant may be admitted on the condition that he satisfy the Class "A" requirements early in his course of study. Work applied to correct the Class "A" deficiency may not be applied toward the M.A.Ed. degree.

4. Up to six hours graduate credit may be accepted for transfer from another accredited institution.

5. The submission of an essay on the student's professional goals and interests, together with the formal application.

6. Satisfactory scores on the Aptitude Portion of the Graduate Record Examination or the Miller Analogies Test.

Special requirements as follows will apply to students who wish an area of academic concentration in the field indicated:

English

1. Thirty hours of undergraduate course work in English beyond the freshman level approved by the Department of English.

2. A satisfactory score on the Aptitude Portion of the Graduate Record Examination or the Miller Analogies Test.

History

1. Twenty-four hours of undergraduate work in history or in courses appropriate to graduate work in history.

2. A satisfactory score on the Aptitude Portion of the Graduate Record Examination or the Miller Analogies Test.

Mathematics

1. Eighteen hours of approved undergraduate work in mathematics.

2. Satisfactory scores on the Aptitude Portion of the Graduate Record Examination or the Miller Analogies Test and the Doppelt Mathematical Reasoning Test.

Requirements for the Degree

Course Requirements

After the admission to graduate study at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, the candidate must successfully complete a minimum of 30 semester hours of work in courses approved for graduate credit. Of these, at least 15 hours must be taken from courses open to graduate students only. Courses will be distributed as follows:

1. Content Area..... 18 semester hours

   a) English: successful completion of English 331, History of the English Language; English 461, Modern English Grammar; English 465, Social Dialects; English 661, Introduction to Linguistics; or English 662, Advanced Rhetoric, and 15 additional hours approved by the department and the student's adviser. At least nine hours must be in courses open to graduate students only.

   b) History: successful completion of at least six three-hour graduate courses or the equivalent. These must include the course in historiography and methodology and at least six additional hours in courses open only to graduate students.

   c) Mathematics: successful completion of six three-hour graduate courses or the equivalent. At least three of these must be in courses open only to graduate students.

2. Professional Education ..... 6 semester hours

Successful completion of at least two three-hours graduate courses or the equivalent as approved by the College of Human Development and Learning. HDL 600 and HDL 620 are recommended.

3. Electives ..... 6 semester hours

Successful completion of at least two three-hour graduate courses or the equivalent. One or both of these may be in areas of major interest, in professional education or a related area approved by the student's adviser.

Thirty semester hours of graduate credit or the equivalent are the minimum required for the degree and for graduate certification. Programs of study beyond the 30 semester hours of graduate credit may be required to remove deficiencies in undergraduate programs, to develop areas of need, interests or needed experience. The student's adviser may recommend additional credits beyond the 30 semester hours required, or equivalent experiences may be designed.

Approval of Individual Program

Approval of the program of each student and advice regarding his progress toward the degree will be the responsibility of an adviser appointed at the time of his admission from the department of academic concentration.

Examination

Each student must pass a comprehensive examination (including an oral examination) on over-all work presented for the degree.

MASTER OF EDUCATION

The Master of Education degree is designed, both from the point of view of sound graduate professional study and professional certification, around a body of knowledge and experiences common to several types of professional needs and interests. Graduate courses, seminars and clinical experiences comprising the major may be conceptualized as an evolving continuous spiral, giving emphasis to the four phases: I. Explorations in Human Potential; II. Meaning and Growth in Teaching/Learning Relationships; III. The Helping Relationships; and IV. Experience and Commitment in Human Learning and Development. Each program of study requires involvement in the development of understandings and competencies in each of the phases. A concentration of studies in one phase is designed to develop areas of major interests, needs and certification. The program of studies should proceed from Phase I through Phase IV. Therefore, the student should begin a program of studies by enrolling in HDL 600-A B, or C, Phase I.

Special Admission Requirements

Students desiring to enroll in the Master of Education program must meet the following special requirements:

1. Evidence of satisfactory scope and quality point average in courses in professional education and a satisfactory scope and quality point average in courses appropriate to the academic concentration.

2. Possession of a North Carolina Class "A" teacher's certificate or the equivalent. An applicant may be admitted on the condition that he satisfy the Class "A" requirements. Work applied to correct the Class "A" deficiency may not be applied toward the M.Ed. degree.

3. At least 12 hours of approved course work in the area(s) of academic concentration.

4. Up to six hours graduate credit may be accepted for transfer from another accredited institution.

5. The submission of an essay on the student's professional goals and interests together with the formal application.

6. Satisfactory scores on the Aptitude Portion of the Graduate Record Examination or the Miller Analogies Test.

7. A candidate for a graduate certificate must file evidence that he scored above the minimum required score for graduates on the National Teacher Examination. Both common and teaching area examinations must be taken by the applicants for certification in an academic area. A successful score on the common area is all that Counselor, Principal or Supervisory Certification requires.

Requirements for the Degree

The candidate for the degree of Master of Education must successfully complete a minimum of 30 semester hours of work in courses approved for graduate credit. Of these, at least 15 must be in courses which are open to graduate students only.

1. Human Development and Learning..... 12 semester hours

   Satisfactory completion of at least four three-hour courses or the equivalent.

2. Related Areas..... 12 semester hours

   Satisfactory completion of at least four three-hour courses, or the equivalent in appropriate academic areas.

3. Electives..... 6 semester hours

   Satisfactory completion of graduate-level electives to a total of at least two three-hour courses or the equivalent. These may be chosen from Human Development and Learning, either or both areas of related interest or an additional related area approved by the student's adviser.

Thirty semester hours of graduate credit or the equivalent are the minimum required for the degree and for graduate certification. Programs of study beyond the 30 semester hours of graduate credit may be required to remove deficiencies in undergraduate programs, to develop areas of need, interests or needed experience. The student's adviser may recommend additional credits beyond the 30 semester hours required or equivalent experiences may be designed.

Curricula

The major for the Master of Education degree is Human Development and Learning. However, within the framework of its requirements, the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction has approved programs leading to graduate teaching certification in Early Childhood and Intermediate Education. Also approved are special service certificate programs in Counseling, School Administration and Supervision and, within the area of Curriculum and Instruction, secondary subject fields and special concentrations. At present, these certifications are limited to the master's degree, or fifth year level.

Approval of Individual Program

Approval of the program of each student and advice regarding his progress toward the degree will be the responsibility of an adviser appointed at the time of his admission from the College of Human Development and Learning.

Comprehensive Examination

A comprehensive examination of the candidate's program of studies is required. This examination will be designed to evaluate the candidate's ability to integrate the various components of his graduate program including courses, independent study and clinical experiences. The purpose of the examination is to provide the opportunity for the candidate to demonstrate his knowledge as related to his professional goal; to demonstrate his ability to analyze an educational problem including diagnosis, synthesis and the ability to bring data and experience to bear upon the solution.

The examination will typically include a written and oral phase. The written phase may call for a written review of all course work taken prior to the examination or it may require the presentation of a project developed and executed during the last 18 hours of the individual's graduate program. The candidate should consult his adviser near the end of the first 12 hours of work about the planning of such project. Date for the oral examination will be arranged with the. Office of Graduate Studies. As a general policy, the final comprehensive examination for the Master of Education degree must be satisfactorily completed not later than the last day of classes of the term in which the student expects to graduate. Persons seeking Graduate certification are reminded that all requirements for the degree must be completed on or before the last day of the second summer session.

MASTER OF MANAGEMENT

Admission

Admission to the Master of Management program is open to qualified graduates of recognized colleges or universities accredited by a regional or general accrediting agency.

There are four major requirements for admission:

1. A generally satisfactory undergraduate record.

2. An acceptable score on the Graduate Management Admissions Test administered by the Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey.

3. A description of any significant work experience.

4. Three supporting letters of recommendation from professors or employers.

Applications should be completed at least three months prior to the semester in which the applicant expects to enroll.

Program Philosophy

The primary objective of graduate study in management is to develop candidates for leadership positions in complex organizations of the future. The basic philosophy of the graduate program recognizes that managerial procedures and practices of today are subject to rapid change. For this reason, the program emphasizes a process of perceiving, analyzing and solving administrative problems. The burden is placed on the student to determine relevant facts, evaluate alternatives and prepare for action. Organizations are analyzed as behavioral, financial and technological units operating in an environment with changing regional, national and international dimensions. Candidates are encouraged to anticipate, innovate and adjust in this dynamic environment.

The curriculum stresses the universal characteristics of management and their application in various types of organizations. Fundamental problems are examined from an economic, information systems and behavioral point of view.

Courses in economic analysis and managerial accounting focus on financial performance and resource allocation, while those in administrative practices emphasize individual and group conduct. Courses in information analysis make possible the integration of the economic and behavioral aspects of administrative problems with the decision-making requirements of practicing managers. These areas constitute the core courses in basic analysis required of all candidates.

After completing the basic analysis sequence, a student selects an organization option. These options provide an opportunity for a candidate to specialize in the administrative problems of particular types of institutions. Options in financial management and industrial management are offered. The financial management option is designed for candidates pursuing careers in commercial banking, investment banking, consumer financing, mortgage banking and related institutions. The industrial management option is appropriate for students pursuing careers in manufacturing organizations. Other options will be added to the program as the need arises.

The final two courses in the program are management strategy and management ethics. These courses are designed to integrate the concepts and methods of analysis developed throughout a candidate's program of study.

Students are required to solve administrative problems that illustrate the integrative aspects of an executive's role. Finally, a candidate must demonstrate his ability to synthesize his knowledge in a comprehensive examination.

The methods of instruction adopted in the program are designed to prepare a candidate for the realities of a management career. These methods include simulations, role playing, written communications, lectures and the case study method. It is the ability to analyze, to judge trends, to weigh diverse influences that lead to sound judgment. This capability can be developed only through practice. The methods of instruction employed in the program are designed to provide such practice.

Courses in the program are scheduled to accommodate part-time and full-time students. Classes are held in the evening throughout the year. Part-time students may enroll in two courses during the fall and spring semesters. A part-time student may complete the program in three years. Full-time students may enroll in four courses during the fall and spring semesters and may complete the program in two years. To avoid scheduling problems, students are encouraged to begin the program in the fall semester.

Program Design

A. Preparation

Candidates for the Master of Management Program must present evidence of preparation in accounting, mathematics and statistics, economics and computer science before beginning the graduate course work.

B. Basic Analysis

All candidates are required to take the following basic analysis courses:

Mgt. 611 Economic Analysis I
Mgt. 612 Economic Analysis II
Mgt. 621 Information Systems I
Mgt. 622 Information Systems II
Mgt. 631 Managerial Accounting
Mgt. 661 Administrative Practices I
Mgt. 662 Administrative Practices II

C. Organizational Option

Upon completion of the basic analysis sequence candidates must select an option in Industrial Management or Financial Management.

The Industrial Management Option includes:

Mgt. 641 Production Management
Mgt. 652 Financial Management
and
Mgt. 671 Marketing and Logistics

The Financial Management Option includes:

Mgt. 651 Financial Markets
Mgt. 652 Financial Management
and
Mgt. 653 Investment Management

D. Synthesis

The final courses required of all candidates are:

Mgt. 692 Management Ethics
and
Mgt. 694 Management Strategy

E. Comprehensive Examination

All candidates are required to demonstrate the ability to integrate their knowledge in a comprehensive examination administered at the end of the program.

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN BIOLOGY

The Master of Science in Biology is designed to provide broad training in the areas of development, ecology, physiology and systematics. This breadth of training should meet the needs of students preparing to teach biology at the community college or secondary school level. The program, however, encourages specialization in the form of mandatory thesis research and course participation in specialty or related areas such as biochemistry. Specialization may provide a basis for more advanced studies or enable the student to choose, in addition to teaching, technical and/or health-related areas of vocation. Graduates of this program are expected to have both breadth of knowledge in the major biological areas and depth of knowledge and technical experience in a selected field of specialization.

A. Admission

For admission into the program leading to the Master of Science in Biology an applicant must fulfill the general requirements for admission to graduate study at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. In addition he must present evidence of the following:

1) Undergraduate preparation in biology substantially equivalent to that required for an undergraduate major in biology at the University.

2) Reading knowledge of a modern foreign language. A student without such competence must successfully demonstrate it prior to admission to candidacy.

3) Promise of being able to complete successfully the degree program as outlined below.

4) Although not required prior to admission or initial enrollment, each applicant must present satisfactory scores on the Advanced Graduate Record Examination in Biology before the end of his first semester in residence.

B. Degree Requirements

The Master of Science in Biology requires successful completion of a minimum of 32 semester hours of course work approved by the department. Of these, at least 16 semester hours must be in courses open to graduate students only. Of the total, no more than eight hours may be credited for research. All courses offered for the degree must carry grades of "Satisfactory" or "Commendable" as defined in the current Graduate Catalog.

In addition to his course work, each candidate for a degree must prepare and present a thesis acceptable to his supervisory committee and the director of Graduate Studies at least three weeks before the date of his final oral examination.

The candidate must also successfully complete a final oral examination which will include a defense of his thesis.

C. Program Approval

The approval of each student's individual program and the monitoring of his progress toward the degree will be the function of a supervisory committee appointed at the time of his admission. The student should refer to the "Academic Regulations" in the present Catalog for a definition of his own responsibilities.

D. Continued Enrollment

A student in the M.S. in Biology program is required to maintain satisfactory progress towards the degree. Continued enrollment is at all times subject to review by his supervisory committee and the Office of Graduate Studies.

E. Residence Requirements

A total of at least 26 semester hours of work offered for the degree must be taken in residence as defined in current academic regulations. At the discretion of the student's supervisory committee up to six hours of transfer credit may be accepted subject to the usual limitations.

F. Admission to Candidacy

General academic regulations will apply to application for admission to candidacy. In addition to these the applicant should:

1) Have removed any identified entrance deficiencies by the time of application.

2) Have, at the discretion of the department, successfully completed one or more qualifying examinations.

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN CHEMISTRY

The program leading towards the degree of Master of Science in Chemistry is a research-based program, requiring courses of a broad, general nature. Major emphasis is placed upon the research project and required thesis.

A. Admission

All applicants must fulfill the general requirements for admission to graduate study at UNCC. Deficiencies will be identified by placement examinations given by the department each semester just prior to registration. Any deficiencies will be removed by taking appropriate undergraduate courses during the first year of residence.

B. Degree Requirements

The candidate for the degree must complete a minimum of 30 semester hours, including at least 12 semester hours of work in courses approved for graduate credit, two semester hours of graduate seminar, and up to 16 hours of research and thesis credit. At least half the credit must be in courses open only to graduate students. Six semester hours must be taken in mathematics, physics or a field of chemistry other than the field of concentration. Required courses include 411, 421, 431, 645, 646, 680 and 690. Well prepared students, particularly those with ACS approved degrees, will normally present the equivalents of 411, 421 and 431 at admission. In such cases, the specific requirements of 411, 421 and 431 will be waived; the hours may be replaced with research hours (690) or elective courses. In addition, the following specific requirements must be fulfilled:

(1) A quality point average of 3.0 (A = 4.0) in all courses taken for graduate credit after initial admission to the degree program.

(2) Satisfactory performance on a reading examination in the chemical literature in Russian, German or French. This requirement will be waived for students holding B.S. degrees from American Chemical Society approved departments. The requirement will also be waived with the presentation of passing grades on 12 semester hours of one of the three acceptable languages. As an alternative to the language requirement, the student may offer a proficiency in a computer language. Decisions as to the acceptability of the level of computer proficiency will be made by the Chemistry Department.

(3) Acceptance of the thesis within five calendar years of starting the M.S. program. This includes a successful defense of written theses before a special thesis committee, established by the Chemistry Department. The thesis committee shall consist of no fewer than four persons, at least one of whom must be from a department other than Chemistry.

(4) Passing grades on three cumulative examinations on current developments in chemistry to be administered by the department at frequent intervals. Alternatively, the student may elect to take a comprehensive examination. If the latter choice is made, an acceptable examination score must be presented no later than one semester after the completion of course work.

C. Program Approval

Approval of the program of each student and monitoring of his progress towards the degree will be the function of a student's advisory committee. The committee shall be composed of the student's research adviser and one other member of the department of the research adviser's choice. Prior to selection of a research adviser, the graduate student's progress will be monitored by a departmental committee representing several chemical subdisciplines. The student should refer to "Academic Regulations" for a discussion of his responsibilities.

D. Continued Enrollment

A student in the chemistry M.S. program is required to maintain satisfactory progress towards the degree. His continued enrollment is at all times subject to review on the basis of his academic record, this review to be performed by the student's advisory committees.

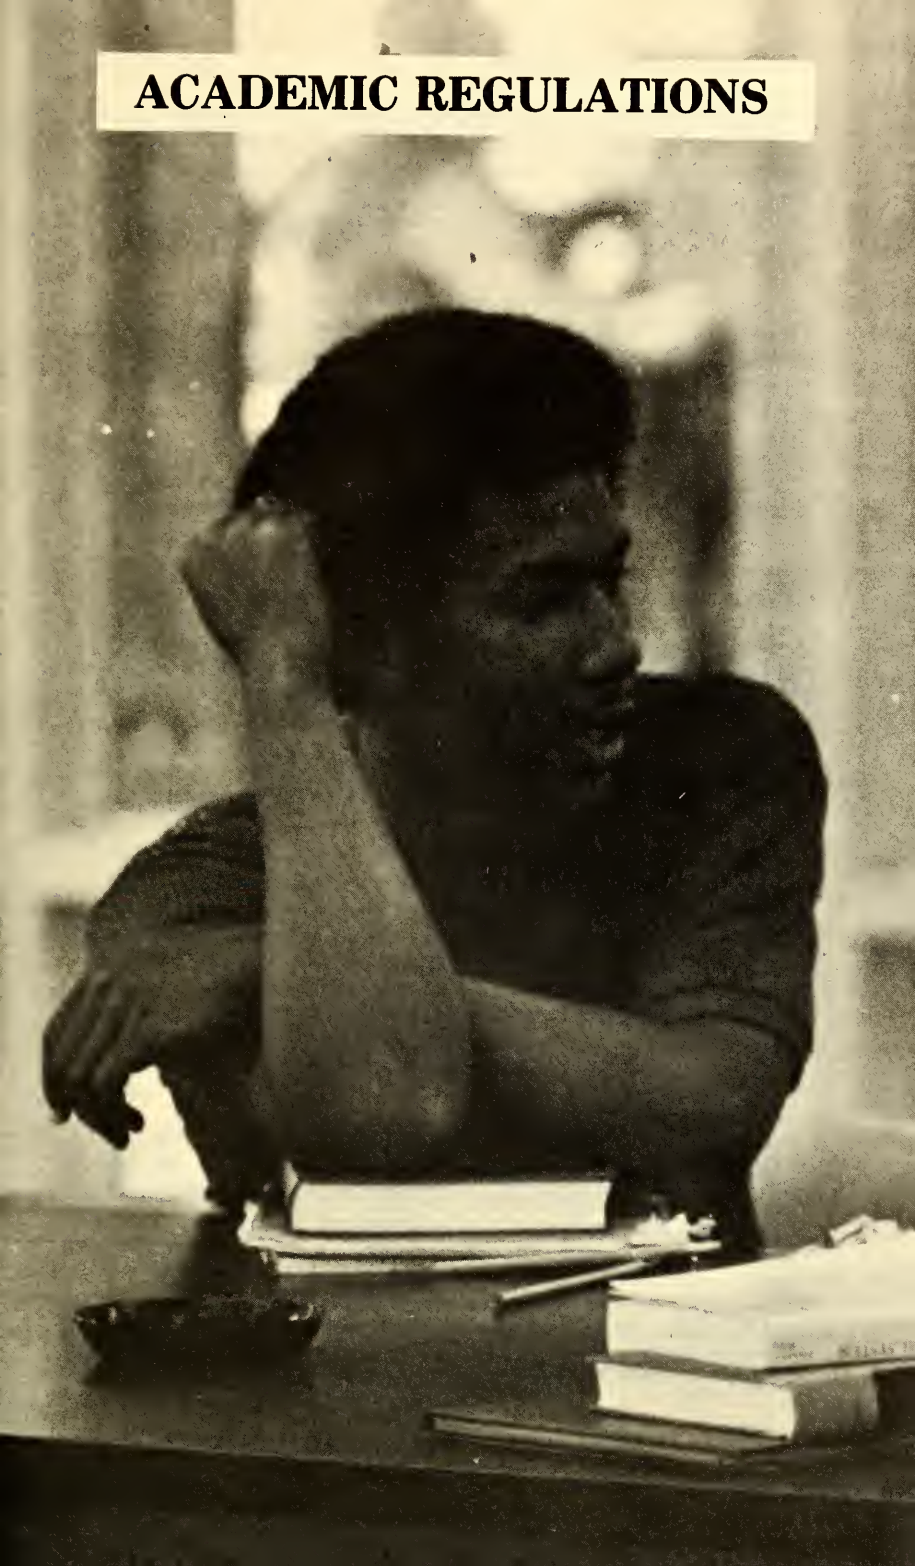
E. Residence Requirements

A total of at least 24 hours of graduate work must be taken on this campus. No more than six hours may be accepted for transfer from other accredited institutions. Decisions as to the acceptability of transfer work will be made by the Chemistry Department. The student's research must be conducted on campus.

F. Admission to Candidacy

General academic regulations apply for admission to candidacy for the degree, continued enrollment and transfer credit.

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS



STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Every student is responsible for the proper completion of his academic program, for familiarity with the University Catalog, for maintaining the grade average required and for meeting all other degree requirements, including attendance at the commencement exercises at which he will receive his diploma. His adviser will counsel him, but the final responsibility remains that of the student.

A student is required to have knowledge of and observe all regulations pertaining to campus life and student deportment. He is responsible for maintaining communication with the University, by keeping on file with the Graduate Office at all times his current address, including zip code and telephone number.

Every student, while he is associated with the University, is expected to comport himself in campus and community life in a manner that will reflect credit upon himself and the University.

GRADING—GRADUATE

The unit of measurement of University work is the semester hour. It ordinarily represents one lecture hour per week for one semester; however, a sequence of two or three laboratory hours is considered to be the equivalent of one lecture hour.

Letters are used to indicate the quality of work done. The significance of letter grades as applied to graduate courses is as follows:

A — Commendable
B — Satisfactory
C — Marginal
U* — Unsatisfactory
I — Incomplete
W* — Withdrew

Grades of A or B

A student enrolled in any graduate program should maintain satisfactory progress toward his degree. He is expected to achieve a commendable or satisfactory grade in all course work attempted for graduate credit.

*Unsatisfactory work or withdrew while doing marginal or unsatisfactory work.
Withdrew while doing satisfactory or commendable work.

Grade of C

An accumulation of three marginal (C) grades will result in termination of the student's enrollment in the graduate program. In order to continue his program of study, the student will be required to reapply and be reaccepted to the graduate program. Reapplication procedures are outlined below.

Grade of U

If a student makes a grade of U on any course, his enrollment will be terminated. In order to continue his program of study, the student will be required to reapply and be reaccepted to the graduate program. Reapplication procedures are outlined below.

Grade of I

The grade of I is assigned at the discretion of the instructor when a student who is otherwise passing has not completed all the work in the course. The missing work must be completed during the next semester in residence, but no later than 12 months after the end of the term in which the I was assigned, whichever comes first. If the I is not removed during the specified time, a grade of U is automatically assigned.

Grade of W

No grade will be given for a course dropped on or before the last day to drop courses without evaluation. When a student withdraws from a course after that date, as indicated in the academic calendar, but before the end of a semester, he may receive the grade of W if, in the judgment of the instructor, he is doing satisfactory or commendable work and has a valid reason for withdrawal. Courses given the grade of W do not count as hours attempted. The time of withdrawal is the time the drop card is accepted by the Registrar's Office.

Pass-No Credit Option

Certain courses such as research seminars, tutorials, internships or theses may be designated for pass-no credit grading upon recommendation of the offering department and approval of the Graduate Administrative Board. The grade of P in such a course shall be considered as evidence of satisfactory performance. A grade of N/C (no credit) will not affect eligibility for continued enrollment nor will it apply toward requirements for the degree.

A student readmitted to the graduate program through the re-application procedures will be expected to complete his program with satisfactory or commendable performance. Should the student receive a grade of C or U after being readmitted to the program, his enrollment in the graduate program will be terminated.

Grade Reports

All students enrolled in the University receive reports of final grades from the registrar after the close of each term. Special reports of unsatisfactory achievement are sent to the students concerned near the middle of each regular semester.

Transcripts of Records

Upon written request by the student, an official transcript of his academic record will be issued to the person or institution designated, provided that all the student's obligations to the University have been settled satisfactorily.

Each student is entitled to one transcript without cost, regardless of how early in his academic career the request may be made. A fee of $1 per copy should accompany subsequent requests.

Requests should reach the Registrar's Office at least one week before the date the transcript is needed.

Teacher Certification

Students, having completed degree requirements and filed application for their degree, who wish graduate or special service certification as public school teachers must request such certification from the State Department of Public Instruction on a form obtained from the College of Human Development and Learning.

Registration for Graduate Credit

Registration in any course is limited to the first week of a semester and the first three days of classes of a summer term. No graduate credit will be given to a student for a course unless he is properly registered for it.

Dual Registration

Undergraduate students at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, who, by written request to the director of graduate studies, accompanied by the regular application form, indicate that they plan to undertake graduate study and who, in the last semester of residence, are required to take fewer than 12 semester hours of undergraduate work to fulfill all requirements for the bachelor's degree may be allowed during the final semester to enroll in certain courses for the purpose of obtaining graduate credit, provided prior approval is granted on a Special Action Form by the student's academic adviser, the instructor(s) of each graduate course(s), the dean of the college(s) in which the graduate course(s) is offered and the director of graduate studies, in that order. The total hours to be carried in this status shall not exceed 12 hours, of which no more than nine may be for graduate credit. On the basis of work attempted prior to the final semester, such student must meet the grade point criteria for admission to a graduate degree program at the University. No course for which credit is applied to an undergraduate degree may receive graduate credit. Permission to take graduate courses under dual registration does not constitute admission to any graduate degree program at the University.

ASSIGNMENT OF ACADEMIC ADVISERS

Each student entering a graduate degree program at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte will, at the time of his admission, be assigned an academic adviser or advisory committee from his field of interest. The adviser will endeavor to help each student develop the course of study best suited to the student's prior preparation and objectives. However, such assistance does not constitute a waiver of the student's personal responsibility as outlined at the beginning of these regulations.

CHANGING OF DEGREE PROGRAM

A student may change from one degree program or area of academic concentration to another provided he meets the prerequisites for admission to the new program and has the written approval of the dean of the college in which it is offered. Such approval should be forwarded to the registrar through the Graduate Office.

COURSE LOAD

A load of nine semester hours constitutes a normal full semester program. The graduate student load should be lower than the normal undergraduate load to encourage extensive reading, independent thinking and appropriate individual research.

Course load is dependent upon two factors: the scholastic ability of the student and the time available for study. Full-time professional public school employees are limited to one course each semester during the academic school year. Others whose full-time employment totals 40 hours a week should not carry more than seven semester hours.

ADDING OR DROPPING A COURSE

In order to add or drop a course after the registration period, a student must secure written permission from his adviser and complete the necessary procedure as prescribed by the Registrar's Office. No student will be permitted to add a course or change sections of a course after the first week of a semester or the first three days of classes in a summer term.

A student who withdraws from a course after the last day to drop courses without grade evaluation will receive a grade of W if, in the opinion of his instructor, he is passing at the time of withdrawal and will receive a grade of U if, in the opinion of his instructor, the student is doing unsatisfactory work at the time of withdrawal.

WITHDRAWAL

Any student voluntarily leaving the University before the close of the term must withdraw officially. He initiates the withdrawal procedure by scheduling a conference with the Graduate Office. A student who is unable to appear in person may notify the Graduate Office of his withdrawal by letter.

Any student who leaves the University before the close of a term without withdrawing officially will receive a grade of U in all courses for which he is registered. A student who is taking only one course must withdraw officially from the University if he drops the course.

TRANSFER CREDITS

At the time of admission, up to six hours transfer credit may be accepted from another accredited institution upon approval of the student's adviser and the dean of his major college.

Courses accepted for transfer credit must be appropriate to the University program and curriculum in which the student is enrolled.

The grade in any course accepted for transfer credit must be the equivalent of that awarded for commendable or satisfactory work as defined by the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Courses accepted for transfer are subject to the same time limitation as courses taken in residence.

RESIDENCE CREDIT

A course is considered to be in residence if it is actually taken on the campus of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte or if credit has been awarded by virtue of an examination administered by the faculty of the college offering credit. A student may also, with the prior approval of the appropriate University of North Carolina at Charlotte college(s), take graduate courses for residence and course credit at other accredited institutions.

CREDIT BY EXAMINATION

A candidate for a degree may receive credit for work appropriate to that degree by successful performance on an examination given by the faculty of the college offering the credit. (See page 51.)

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

Upon completion of a substantial amount of graduate work and in no case later than two weeks prior to the beginning of the semester in which he expects to complete all requisites for the degree, a student should file for Admission to Candidacy on a form supplied by the Graduate Office. This application is a check sheet approved by his adviser, his department chairman and his college dean listing all course work to be offered for the degree (including transfer credit and courses in progress.)

Upon receipt of this application, the director of graduate studies will consult with the department concerned to arrange for the scheduling of the comprehensive examination(s) and composition of the examining committee.

APPLICATION FOR THE DEGREE

Each student should make application for his degree on a form obtained from the Graduate Office no later than the filing date specified in the University calendar. The application must be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee in effect at the time of application. Degrees are awarded only at commencement exercises held at the end of the spring semester; however, the diploma will reflect the term in which all requirements were completed.

TIME LIMIT

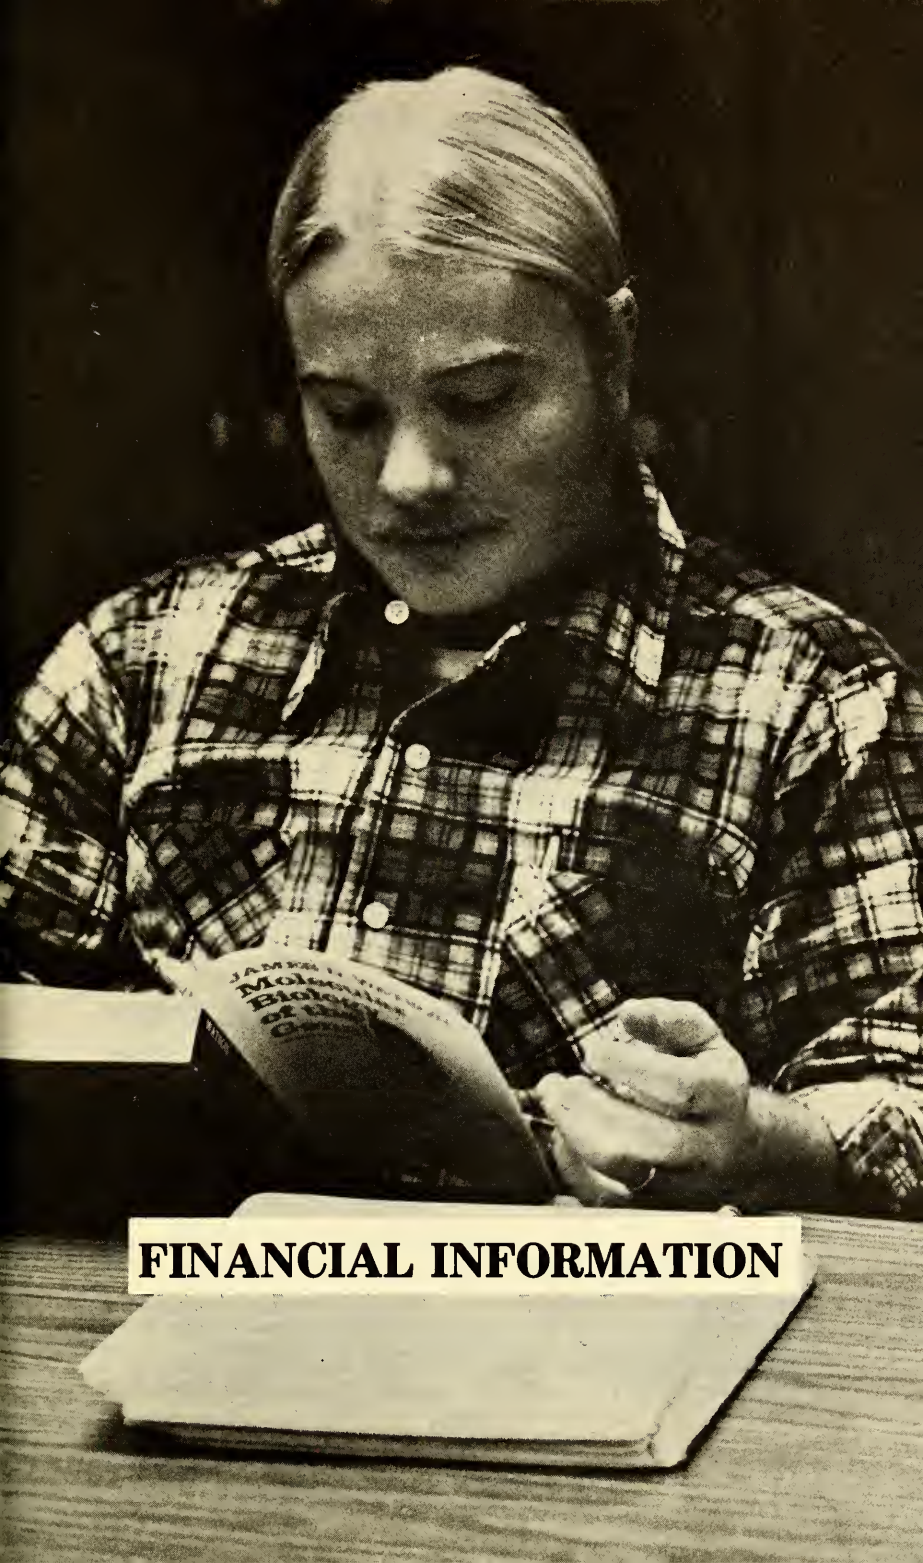
All work offered for the master's degree must be completed within a five-year period.

POLICY ON SECOND MASTER'S DEGREE

A student is permitted to earn a second master's degree subject to the following conditions: (1) no work applied to a previously awarded degree may be applied to the new degree program; (2) the student must gain admittance to a degree program different from that of his previous graduate degree(s), and (3) the student must successfully meet all requirements for the new degree.

APPEAL PROCEDURE

Any student or applicant may appeal any decision affecting his status as a graduate student by submitting a written petition to the Appeals Committee of the Graduate Administrative Board after he has exhausted his remedies in the appropriate college. The petition shall briefly describe the facts which support his claim and the remedy being sought. Within 14 days after receiving a petition, the chairman of the Appeals Committee shall hold a hearing in which the petitioner and appropriate faculty and administrators may present testimony and other evidence. The chairman of the Appeals Committee shall report its decision on any appeals matter a) directly to the Director of Graduate Studies and b) to the Graduate Administrative Board at the first board meeting following the hearing. The Director of Graduate Studies shall advise the petitioner in writing of the decision of the Appeals Committee within 30 days after the end of the hearing.



FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Charges for tuition and fees vary according to the student's status as a resident or nonresident of North Carolina. A nonresident student must pay a higher rate of tuition than a legal resident.

Tuition and fees are due and payable on the day of registration. Checks and money orders should be made payable to the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Students taking eight or more semester hours of work during a regular semester will be charged full tuition and fees. Students taking less than eight hours of work during a regular semester will be charged a prorated portion of tuition and fees as specified below. The charges below reflect the tuition and fees for the 1976-77 academic year.

Cost Per Semester For Eight or More Semester Hours	Commuting Students*	N. Carolina Resident Students	Out-of-State Resident Students
Tuition	$120.00	$120.00	$ 950.00
General Fee	107.00	107.00	107.00
Room & Board		512.50	512.50
Total	$227.00	$739.50	$1,569.50

Cost Per Semester For Five to Seven Semester Hours	N. Carolina Students*	Out-of-State Students
Tuition	$ 48.00	$ 475.00
General Fee	39.00	39.00
Total	$ 87.00	$ 514.00

Cost Per Semester For Four or Fewer Semester Hours	N. Carolina Students*	Out-of-State Students
Tuition	$ 24.00	$ 237.50
General Fee	17.00	17.00
Total	$ 41.00	$ 254.50

NOTE: Residence hall space is not available to students taking fewer than 12 semester hours.

The University reserves the right to make, with the approval of proper authorities, changes in tuition and fees at any time.

*The commuting student will not have the cost of room and board but should estimate his cost of travel to and from campus. Out-of-state commuting students should use the cost of tuition listed in the third column in computing their total expenses each semester.

The list for room and board given above is for the seven-day plan. In addition, the University offers a five-day room and board plan available at a cost of $487.50 per semester.

Refunds

A student who officially withdraws from the University during the first two weeks of the semester will receive a refund of the full amount paid less a fee of $25.00. This applies to both full and part-time students. No requests will be approved after the end of the normal refund period unless the student can show undue hardship which caused him to withdraw from the University.

In the event a refund is approved as a result of hardship, the refund will be made pro-rata, based on the number of weeks between the beginning of the semester and the date the student officially withdrew from the University. Requests for a refund must be submitted in writing to the vice chancellor for business affairs.

In each summer session, a student who officially withdraws from the University during the first three class days will receive a refund of the full amount paid less a registration fee of $10. Under normal circumstances no refund will be made after the first three days of the summer session unless the student can show undue hardship which caused him to withdraw from the University.

Housing

Admission to UNCC does not guarantee residence hall space. Arrangements for on-campus housing are made after admission with the director of residence life. On-campus housing is not available for married or part-time students.

All housing applications for the full academic year must be submitted with a $50 pre-payment. This pre-payment is applied to spring semester room and board charges unless the student cancels his application for the spring semester by December 10, in which case, the $50 will be refunded.

University Statement on Residence Status for Tuition Payment

1. Residence for tuition purposes is defined by statute as follows:

   (G.S. 116-143.1(b)
   "To qualify for in-state tuition a legal resident must have maintained his domicile in North Carolina for at least the 12 months immediately prior to his classification as a resident for tuition purposes. In order to be eligible for such classification, the individual must establish that his or her presence in the State during such 12-month period was for purposes of maintaining a bona fide domicile rather than for purposes of mere temporary residence incident to enrollment in an institution of higher education; further, (1) if the parents (or court-appointed legal guardian) of the individual seeking resident classification are (is) bona fide domiciliaries of this State, this fact shall be prima facie evidence of domiciliary status of the individual applicant and (2) if such parents or guardian are not bona fide domiciliaries of this State, this fact shall be prima facie evidence of non-domiciliary status of the individual."

2. University regulations governing residential classification of students are set forth in detail in "A Manual To Assist the Public Higher Education Institutions of North Carolina in the Matter of Student Residence Classification for Tuition Purposes." Each enrolled student is responsible for knowing the contents of this manual. Copies of the manual are available in the Registrar's Office for inspection upon request.

Application Fee

Applicants for admission to a degree program are required to submit a $10 application fee with the application form. The fee is not deductible and is not refundable. An equivalent fee must accompany each application for readmission where permission to reenroll is not granted as a matter of routine.

Late Registration Fee

A fee of $10 will be charged for those registering after the designated registration period each semester. The fee is not refundable.

Applicants completing their applications before the application deadline but whose applications could not be processed in time will not be assessed the late registration fee if required to register late.

Graduation Fee

Each member of the graduating class must pay a graduation fee of $15 at the time he applies for the degree. No reduction in fees is allowed for those receiving degrees in absentia. For graduate students, the cost of renting a hood is in addition to the $15 charge.

Registration of Motor Vehicles

Any student attending the University is required to register his motor vehicle(s) in order to park such vehicle(s) on campus. Only vehicles owned by the student, his spouse, his parent(s) or his guardian may be registered. Unless increased by the chancellor the number of vehicles which a student may register is two.

Registration of motor vehicles is to be accomplished as part of the University registration at the beginning of the fall semester of each year or at the time when the student first registers in the University and at the beginning of the fall semester of each year thereafter. A motor vehicle acquired by a student during a semester is to be registered as prescribed in the regulations.

The motor vehicle registration fee for students and staff members is as follows:

$20 per academic year beginning with the fall semester;

$12 for the period beginning with the spring semester and ending with the beginning of the next fall semester;

$ 8 for the period beginning with a summer term and ending with the beginning of the next fall semester;

$ 2 for one additional motor vehicle;

$ 1 for replacing lost or defaced permit.

Violators of University Parking Regulations will incur a civil penalty of $1, $3, or $5, depending on the seriousness of the violation. If not paid in five days, the penalty will be doubled and applied to member's account with the University and collectable as a bad debt. Subsequent registration may be withheld for nonpayment.

Credit by Examination Fee

Fees for credit by examination are as follows: A written examination for a course will require a fee of $15. A laboratory examination requiring the arrangement of such things as laboratory materials will require a fee of $25. A combination of a laboratory and written examination will require a fee of $30.

Student Activities Fee

A part of the general fee provides students with a program of cultural, recreational and entertainment activities. It pays for admission to most athletic contests, dramatic productions, activities sponsored by the Student Activities Board, social and entertainment functions and for subscriptions to the newspaper and literary magazine. The yearbook is provided free to all students taking eight or more semester hours of each semester during the academic year. Other students may obtain a yearbook upon payment of $8.50.

Education for the Vocationally Handicapped

Students who have suffered a disability which renders them vocationally handicapped are eligible for aid provided by the North Carolina State Division of Vocational Rehabilitation. This aid takes the form of services which include vocational counseling and guidance and placement. Payment of expenses such as training, medical treatment, room and board, books, fees and tuition may be available. A vocational rehabilitation officer is available in Charlotte for interviewing applicants. Appointments may be made by contacting the Vocational Rehabilitation Office located at 219 East Blvd., 375-8686.

Veterans Benefits

The Office of the Registrar works with the Veterans Administration to assist in administering the various programs of benefit to veterans or eligible relatives of veterans. The veterans clerk in the Registrar's Office certifies enrollment and transmits necessary credentials and information to the proper Veterans Administration Office.

Admission to the University should be obtained before the student makes application for veteran's benefits. Application for a certificate of eligibility should be made to the nearest Veterans Administration Regional Office at least six weeks before the expected date of enrollment.

In order to be eligible for the full monthly allowance under any of the above laws, an undergraduate student must be enrolled for 12 or more semester hours of work, while a graduate student must be enrolled for nine or more semester hours. Those enrolled for fewer semester hours than the limits stated above will be eligible for part-time compensation. Students are responsible for reporting any change in enrollment status to the veterans clerk in the Office of the Registrar.

Financial Aid

The University has a limited number of graduate assistantships in the fields of biology, chemistry and geography. Such financial support will be extended to other areas of study as rapidly as resources become available. Application for a graduate assistantship should be filed in writing with the appropriate department through the director of graduate studies not later than the February preceding the fall semester for which the assistantship is desired.

Financial aid is also available to graduate students who are United States citizens in two forms: the College Work-Study Program and the National Defense Student Loan Program. Eligibility for these programs is based upon the student's being classified as a full-time graduate student.

For purposes of financial aid, a full-time student is defined as one who is taking a minimum of nine semester hours of course work. The student receiving financial assistance from the University must be working toward a degree and not simply taking graduate courses.

Graduate students will also be considered for University employment upon request. However, all graduate students seeking employment must have the approval of their department heads.

Short term loans for periods up to 30 days are also available for graduate students. These loans are of an emergency nature and may be applied for in the Student Aid Office.

For information and application for financial aid, contact the Student Aid Office, Atkins Library, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, UNCC Station, Charlotte, North Carolina 28223.

Placement Service

The Placement Office functions as the central placement agency for the campus with services available at no cost to graduate students, undergraduates and alumni. Services include career planning and guidance, counseling on the tools and techniques of the job search and interviewing, providing liaison between employers and graduates by arranging for on-campus recruiting by employers, by maintaining a list of current employment openings and by individual referral, maintaining a file of information on business firms, governmental agencies, school systems and graduate school fellowships, which is open to students for browsing, assisting students in making contacts for summer and part-time jobs off campus (when approved) which may relate to their field of study or vocational objectives and/or enable them to obtain funds for educational expenses.

Degree candidates register with the Placement Office on a voluntary basis early in their graduating year by completing a resume and obtaining three confidential evaluations on forms provided by the Placement Office. The credentials filed are retained on a permanent basis.

COURSES OF STUDY

Following are graduate courses offered by the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, listed by colleges and under the department or academic area concerned.

Courses are listed with the departmental abbreviation, course number, title of the course, the semester hours credit given in parenthesis, prerequisites, if any, and a description of the subject matter covered, with whatever requirements of class or laboratory hours are applicable. If no class hours are given, the number of class sessions per week is the same as the number of semester hours credit for the course.

The student must arrange his program in consultation with his major college of academic or professional concentration. Students intending to teach should consult both the major department and the College of Human Development and Learning.

College of Business Administration

Dean: Professor Palmer

Enrollment in the following graduate courses offered by the College of Business Administration is normally restricted to graduate students who have completed all prerequisites and have been admitted to full standing in the Master of Management program.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

MGT 611. ECONOMIC ANALYSIS I. (3) A study of the method of economic analysis employed in the examination of the external economic environment of the organization. The economic factors determining changes in national income and levels of economic activity in the nation, region and industry are considered and analyzed. Analytical concepts and techniques for forecasting general economic and industry activity are developed, and the relevance of such techniques for administration of organizations is examined.

MGT 612. ECONOMIC ANALYSIS II. (3) This course examines the operation of the pricing system within the various market structures of the economy. Included are the price and output decision of the firm under conditions of pure competition, monopoly, oligopoly and monopolistic completion. The problems of economic concentration, resource allocation and the role of government in a market economy are studied.

MGT 621. INFORMATION SYSTEMS I. (3) A study of the planning, design, implementation and control of management information systems. Emphasis is placed on the merging utilization of more advanced information systems, the role of information in the management process and the networks necessary for efficient transmittal of information to the proper sources. Of particular importance is the generation and analysis of data for decision making.

MGT 622. INFORMATION SYSTEMS II. (3) An analytical approach to the management process. Generalized models for decision making will be explored with major emphasis placed on the application of the scientific method to management problems.

MGT 631. MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING. (3) A study of management's uses of accounting. Topics include profit planning and control, evaluation of performance, cost analysis and income tax planning.

MGT 641. PRODUCTION MANAGEMENT. (3) This course draws upon the economic, behavioral and quantitative disciplines and integrates them with the production function of an industrial organization. Product, capacity and operating systems are identified and analyzed. Case studies and computer techniques are to be used extensively.

MGT 651. FINANCIAL MARKETS. (3) A broad survey of both the money and capital markets. Interest rate determination and determinants of money supply and demand will be stressed. Emphasis will also be given to principal instruments within the interactions between the money and capital markets.

MGT 652. FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT. (3) Theory and practice of corporate finance including asset management, cost of capital and capital budgeting, optimization problems and socio-economic aspects of financial management. Computer technology will be employed.

MGT 653. INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT. (3) Theory and practice of investment problems of individuals and fund managers. Investment analysis, elements of the investment process and criteria for investment decisions will be emphasized with employment of the computer as relevant.

MGT 661. ADMINISTRATIVE PRACTICE I. (3) The purpose of this course is to develop a student's ability to analyze the conduct of consumers, workers, investors and managers. Problems in marketing research, industrial relations, investment relations and management development are stressed. Recruiting, interviewing, negotiating and selling-buying practices are analyzed and simulated.

MGT 662. ADMINISTRATIVE PRACTICE II. (3) The purpose of this course is to develop a student's ability to analyze organizations and plan their evolution. Problems in administrative leadership, marketing, production and financial organizations are analyzed and simulated.

MGT 671. MARKETING AND LOGISTICS. (3) This course draws upon the disciplines of economics, the behavioral sciences and mathematics to develop perception and skill in marketing and logistics management. The focus is upon the decisions required to effectively balance the objectives and resources of the firm in developing successful marketing and logistics strategies. Case studies, simulations and computer techniques will be used in this course.

MGT 690. DIRECTED INDIVIDUAL STUDY. (3-6) This course is designed to permit a student to undertake directed individual study and in-depth analysis of a special area of management, economics, business or accounting. The course may be used to satisfy up to six semester hours of graduate credit requirements in the Master of Management degree program and may be repeated for credit providing a different area of study is undertaken each time. Permission of a member of the graduate faculty who would direct the study must be secured before registering for the course.

MGT 692. MANAGEMENT ETHICS. (3) The purpose of this course is to develop a student's ability to analyze the political, moral and legal aspects of policy formulation. Management's responsibilities to consumers, employees, investors and the public are stressed. Students are encouraged to develop a concept of professional management applicable in complex organizations.

MGT 694. MANAGEMENT STRATEGY. (3) This course is designed to synthesize the concepts and analytical methods developed throughout a candidate's program of study. Students are required to solve organizational problems encountered by top administrators. The interdependency of marketing, production and financial functions is stressed. Participation in a complex simulation is an integral part of this course.

SPA 402. TWENTIETH-CENTURY SPANISH LITERATURE. (3) Prerequisite: two 300-level courses or permission of department. Treatment of major literary developments from the Generation of 1898 to the present day. Lectures, discussions and reports on the basis of extensive collateral readings. Course conducted in Spanish.

SPA 405. THE GOLDEN AGE OF SPANISH LITERATURE I. (3) Prerequisite: two 300-level courses or permission of department. El Lazarillo through El Criticon. Lecture, discussions and reports on basis of extensive collateral reading. Course conducted in Spanish.

SPA 406. THE GOLDEN AGE OF SPANISH LITERATURE II. (3) Prerequisite: two 300-level courses or permission of department. Study of works of the leading dramatists and poets of the period with emphasis on Lope, Tirso do Molina, Ruiz de Alarcon and Calderon. Lectures, discussions and reports on basis of extensive collateral readings. Course conducted in Spanish.

SPA 411. STUDIES IN SPANISH AMERICAN PROSE FICTION. (3) Prerequisite: two 300-level courses or permission of the department. Studies of nineteenth and twentieth century Spanish American prose fiction. Course conducted in Spanish.

SPA 412. STUDIES IN SPANISH AMERICAN POETRY AND DRAMA. (3) Prerequisite: two 300-level courses or permission of the department. Studies of nineteenth and twentieth century Spanish American drama and/or poetry. Course conducted in Spanish.

SPA 413. DON QUIJOTE. (3) Prerequisite: two 300-level courses or permission of the department. In-depth study of Cervantes' masterpiece, which is considered by many critics to be the basis of the modern Western novel. Course conducted in Spanish.

SPA 450. SELECTED READINGS IN SPANISH. (3) Prerequisite: two 300-level courses or permission of the department. Consideration in depth of a predetermined author or literary movement. Course conducted in Spanish.

HISTORY

Acting Chairman: Professor Wrigley

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses for Advanced Undergraduates and Graduates

HIS 411. PROBLEMS IN HISTORY. (3) A colloquium designed around a problem in history, utilizing reading, discussion, reports and short papers. Topics vary within the fields of American, European, Latin American, African and Asian history. May be repeated for credit.

HIS 414. AMERICAN SOCIAL AND INTELLECTUAL HISTORY TO 1860. (3) Development of American social institutions and thought from the beginning to the Civil War. The course is conducted as a colloquium, combining lectures, discussions, extensive reading and oral reports and a research paper by each student.

HIS 415. AMERICAN SOCIAL AND INTELLECTUAL HISTORY SINCE 1860. (3) Continuation of HIS 414 from the Civil War to the present.

HIS 416. RECENT AMERICAN RADICALISM. (3) Radical thought and action in the United States since 1890. Emphasis on Marxian-Socialism, Black and labor radicalism, radical women and the New Left movement.

HIS 492. SEMINAR IN HISTORY. (3) Prerequisite: consent of the department. An intensive examination of a subject in history. May be repeated for credit.

Courses for Graduate Students Only

HIS 601. DIRECTED READINGS/RESEARCH. (3) Prerequisite: prior written consent of instructor and graduate coordinator. Graduate students will meet individually or in small groups with the instructor and will be assigned readings and/or research on a theme which relates to the lectures of an undergraduate class. Attendance at the lectures is a course requirement, but evalutaion and credit will be based on directed readings/research and conferences or small group discussion. May be repeated for credit.

HIS 602. CURRICULUM MATERIALS IN HISTORY. (3) Prerequisite: Prior written consent of instructor and graduate coordinator. May be repeated for credit. Graduate students will meet individually or in small groups with the instructor and will develop syllabi, lesson plans, bibliographies, and instructional materials on a theme which relates to the lectures of an undergraduate class. Attendance at the lectures is a course requirement, but evaluation and credit will be based on the curriculum materials developed and on conference or small group discussion.

HIS 650. TOPICS IN HISTORY. (3) Intensive treatment of a period of a broader survey of a topic, depending on student needs and staff resources. May be repeated for credit.

HIS 693. HISTORIOGRAPHY AND METHODOLOGY. (3) A study of the historian and his philosophical and methodological approach. Required of all M.A.Ed. candidates.

HIS 694. READINGS IN HISTORY. (3) Prerequisite: prior written consent of instructor. Coverage of historical periods or topics through individually designed reading programs; scheduled conferences with a staff member. May be repeated for credit.

HIS 696. GRADUATE COLLOQUIUM. (3) A colloquium focused on a theme or period. Assigned readings, short papers and reports directed toward developing research and writing skills. May be repeated for credit.

HIS 697. DIRECTED RESEARCH. (3) Prerequisite: prior written consent of instructor. Investigation of a historical problem culminating in a research paper. May be repeated for credit.

RELIGIOUS STUDIES

Acting Chairman: Professor Underwood

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses for Advanced Undergraduates and Graduates

REL 432. RELIGION AND MODERN THOUGHT. (3) Prerequisite: consent of the instructor. An intensive analysis of selected issues which stem from the interaction of modern thought and modern religious sensibilities.

College of Science and Mathematics

Dean and Charles H. Stone Professor: Burson

The College of Science and Mathematics offers the Master of Science degree through its Departments of Biology and Chemistry. The college also has primary responsibility, through its Department of Mathematics, for the admission and advising of students seeking the Master of Arts in Education with an academic concentration in mathematics. Students enrolled in other graduate programs who meet the prerequisites for specific graduate courses in a science or mathematics may elect such courses with the approval of their adviser and the offering department.

Chairman: Professor Arvey

Courses for Graduate Credit

The graduate student may select courses from the following list. Selection of courses will depend upon the background of the student; the potential candidate must demonstrate competence in the areas of plant, animal and cell biology. These course offerings will allow a foundation for breadth of training and pursuit of a specialty.

Courses for Advanced Undergraduates and Graduates

BIO 311. MICROBIOLOGY. (3) Prerequisite: BIO 231. Morphology, physiology and methods of culture and control of microscopic organisms. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 311L. MICROBIOLOGY LABORATORY. (1) Prerequisite or corequisite: BIO 311. One laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 319. PLANT SYSTEMATICS. (4) Prerequisite: BIO 211. Identification, classification and phylogenetic relationships of seed plants, including preparation and preservation of specimens. Two lecture hours and two laboratory periods of two hours each week.

BIO 321. VERTEBRATE ZOOLOGY. (4) Prerequisite: BIO 221 or consent of department. Taxonomy, anatomy, physiology and life histories of vertebrates with emphasis on local forms. 321A - Icthyology, 321B - Herpetology, 321C - Ornithology, 321D - Mammalogy. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 323. PARASITOLOGY. (4) Prerequisite: BIO 221. Morphology, life cycles, ecology, taxonomy and economic importance of parasites. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 325. INVERTEBRATE ZOOLOGY. (4) Prerequisite: BIO 221. Taxonomy, anatomy, physiology and life histories of invertebrates, with main emphasis on species important to man. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 331. GENETICS. (3) Prerequisite: BIO 231 or one course in biology and consent of department. Basic concepts of heredity: principles of classical and molecular genetics. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 331L. GENETICS LABORATORY. (1) Prerequisite or corequisite: BIO 331. One laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 333. PLANT GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT. (4) Prerequisites: BIO 211 and 231. Growth and development of plants with emphasis on physical and chemical differentiation. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 338. EMBRYOLOGY. (3) Prerequisite: BIO 221 or 101 with consent of department. Developmental processes occurring chiefly during gametogenesis, fertilization, early embryogenesis and organogenesis. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 338L. EMBRYOLOGY LABORATORY. (1) Prerequisite or corequisite: BIO 338. One laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 345. COMPARATIVE VERTEBRATE ZOOLOGY. (4) Prerequisite: BIO 211. Comparative studies of the anatomy, physiology and functional adaptations of selected vertebrates with emphasis on evolutionary developments, especially in mammals. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 347. HISTOLOGY. (4) Prerequisite: BIO 221 or 231 or 101 with consent of department. Animal tissues and organs; techniques of preparing tissues for analysis. Two lecture hours and two laboratory periods of two hours a week.

BIO 352. VERTEBRATE PALEONTOLOGY. (3) Prerequisite: BIO 221 or consent of department. Evolution of vertebrate animals from the first fishes to man. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 355. ANIMAL BEHAVIOR. (3) Prerequisite: One course in biology or consent of department. Causation, development, function and evolution of behavior. Topics include communication systems, social systems and behavior of man. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 355L. ANIMAL BEHAVIOR LABORATORY. (1) Prerequisite or corequisite: BIO 355. One laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 361. ECOLOGY. (3) Prerequisite: BIO 211, 221 and one course in chemistry. Interrelationships of organisms and their environment. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 361L. ECOLOGY LAB. (1) Prerequisite or corequisite: BIO 361. Three hours laboratory a week.

BIO 369. ENVIRONMENTAL PROBLEMS. (3) Prerequisites: One course in biology and one course in chemistry. Biological aspects of air, water and land pollution; resource depletion; and over-population. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 373. PLANT PHYSIOLOGY. (4) Prerequisites: BIO 221 and 231. Metabolic and physiological processes of plants and conditions which affect or regulate these processes. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 375. ANIMAL PHYSIOLOGY. (4) Prerequisite: BIO 221 and two courses in chemistry. Fundamental control mechanisms which operate to maintain the homeostatic state. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 391. RADIATION BIOLOGY. (3) Prerequisite: BIO 231 and one course in organic chemistry. Biological effects of ionizing radiation on living matter. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 395. SPECIAL TOPICS IN BIOLOGY. (1-4) Prerequisite: consent of department. Used to comply with requests for special topics and advanced studies in biology. Lecture hours and laboratory hours will vary with the courses taught. May be repeated for credit.

BIO 425. NEUROBIOLOGY. (3) Prerequisite: BIO 231 or consent of department. Physiology and anatomy of nervous systems. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 425L. NEUROBIOLOGY LABORATORY. (1) Prerequisite or corequisite: BIO 425. One laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 437. CYTOGENETICS. (4) Prerequisite: Biology 331. Plant and animal cells, with emphasis on problems of chromosomal organization, function and behavior, including the role of chromosome number and aberrations in speciation and evolution. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 438. MECHANISMS IN DEVELOPMENT. (3) Prerequisite: BIO 231 and 338 or consent of department. Cellular and molecular bases of differentiation, experimental analysis of causal and molecular bases of differentiation, experimental analysis of causal and controlling factors in development. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 451. EVOLUTION AND POPULATION GENETICS. (3) Prerequisite: BIO 331 or 335. Theories of evolution and forces which affect population genetics. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 461. LIMNOLOGY AND OCEANOGRAPHY. (4) Prerequisite: Two courses in chemistry. Geological, physical, chemical, and biological aspects of lakes, streams, estuaries, and oceans. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 473. IMMUNOLOGY. (4) Prerequisite: BIO 311. Selected topics including fundamental aspects of antigens and antibodies, their structures, specificities and reactions on cellular and molecular levels. Two hours of lecture and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 473L. IMMUNOLOGY LABORATORY. (1) Prerequisite or corequisite: BIO 311. One laboratory period of three hours a week. week.

BIO 474. VIROLOGY. (4) Prerequisites: BIO 311 and two courses in organic chemistry. Morphology, classification, genetics and pathogenicity of bacterial, plant and animal viruses. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 475. ENDOCRINOLOGY. (3) Prerequisites: BIO 375 and one course in organic chemistry. Endocrine glands and their physiological roles in metabolism, growth and reproduction. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 475L. ENDOCRINOLOGY LABORATORY. (1) Prerequisite or corequisite: BIO 475. One laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 476. COMPARATIVE INVERTEBRATE PHYSIOLOGY. (3) Prerequisites: BIO 221, 231 and one course in organic chemistry or consent of department. Maintenance of body fluids; acquisition, processing and distribution of nutrient materials; gas exchange; movement and coordination. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 476L. COMPARATIVE INVERTEBRATE PHYSIOLOGY LABORATORY. (1) Prerequisite or corequisite: BIO 476. One laboratory period of three hours a week.

BIO 477. CELL PHYSIOLOGY. (3) Prerequisites: BIO 231 and CHE 231. The fundamental physiochemical properties of cells. Three lecture hours a week.

BIO 484. RADIOISOTOPE TECHNIQUES. (4) Prerequisite: two semesters of chemistry. Use of radioisotopes in science: properties of sub-atomic particles, instrumentation, safety procedures and radioisotope labeling. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours a week.

Courses for Graduate Students Only

The following courses are designed to allow the student to obtain an in-depth exposure to certain areas in biology. The tutorial courses will provide a foundation for the student's research endeavor; it may be tailored to supplement the student's specialization area. Courses numbered 691 and 695 may be repeated for credit.

BIO 691. SEMINAR. (1 or 2) Four hours are required. Topics of current emphasis in biology.

BIO 695. TUTORIAL. (1 to 4) Four hours are required. Directed study in areas of specialization in biology and related fields.

BIO 697. RESEARCH AND THESIS. Credit up to 8 hours.

CHEMISTRY

Chairman: Professor Gibson

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses for Advanced Undergraduates and Graduates

CHE 411. INSTRUMENTAL ANALYSIS. (4) Prerequisites: CHE 311 and 341. A discussion of modern electrochemical and chromatographic techniques and of ultraviolet, infrared, NMR, ESR, Raman and mass spectroscopy. The discussion includes theory and practice, with considerable attention given to the instrument and elementary electronics involved in the techniques. Two lecture hours and two three-hour laboratory periods per week.

CHE 412. APPLIED MINICOMPUTER INTERFACING IN CHEMISTRY. (4) Prerequisite: departmental approval. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours each week. The background needed to apply minicomputer interfacing in chemical research, including machine language programming unique to DEC PDP-8 family minicomputers and elementary digital electronics, will be presented. Application of computer automation in chemical research will be discussed. The laboratory will involve individual projects concerned with the design, development and implementation of the software and hardware needed to solve an interfacing project selected by the student. The course is designed to provide a foundation for the use of computer automation in research. No background in programming or electronics is required.

CHE 421. ADVANCED INORGANIC CHEMISTRY. (4) Prerequisite: CHE 342. Theoretical inorganic chemistry including the application of physico-chemical principles to the study of inorganic systems. Laboratory work involving inorganic preparations and characterization techniques. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of three hours per week.

CHE 431. ADVANCED ORGANIC CHEMISTRY. (4) Prerequisites: CHE 232, 236 and 311. Recent developments in organic chemistry. Laboratory techniques of organic chemistry with emphasis on qualitative organic analysis including instrumental methods. Two lecture hours and two laboratory periods of three hours per week.

CHE 445. ADVANCED PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY. (3) Prerequisite: CHE 342. Topics selected from quantum chemistry and/or statistical thermodynamics. Three lecture hours per week.

CHE 475. PHYSICAL BIOCHEMISTRY. (3) Prerequisites: CHE 232, 236 and 341 or 345. Colloid systems, equilibria in biological fluids, mass and energy transport in fluids and in association with membranes, energy storage and dissipation with relation to specific chemical bonding, enzyme kinetics. Three lecture hours per week.

CHE 590. SPECIAL TOPICS IN CHEMISTRY. (1-4) Prerequisite: consent of the department. May be repeated for credit. Lectures and/or laboratory hours will vary with the nature of the course taught. Selected topics in chemistry.

Courses for Graduate Students Only

CHE 615. ADVANCED ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY. (3) Prerequisite: CHE 411. The application of modern analytical methods to chemical problems. Emphasis is upon the chemical information, particularly structural, obtainable from these techniques. Three lecture hours per week.

CHE 625. THEORETICAL INORGANIC CHEMISTRY. (3) Prerequisite: CHE 421. Group theoretical treatment of current theories of inorganic chemistry. Topics covered: Ligand field theory, molecular orbital theory for complex ions, electronic spectra of complex ions and the magnetic properties of complex ions. Three lecture hours per week.

CHE 635. ADVANCED ORGANIC CHEMISTRY. (3) Prerequisite: CHE 431. A qualitative discussion of modern mechanistic interpretation of the relations between structure and reactivity. Special emphasis is placed on the role of reactive intermediates such as carbonium ions, carbanions, carbenes and radicals. Three lecture hours per week.

CHE 645. CHEMICAL THERMODYNAMICS. (3) Prerequisite: CHE 341 or 345. The postulatory basis of classical thermodynamics. Problems in chemical thermodynamics. The use of statistical mechanics for calculating thermodynamic functions. Three lecture hours per week.

CHE 646. RATES AND MECHANISMS. (3) Prerequisite: CHE 341 or 345. Consideration of chemical kinetics and mechanism schemes, particularly those of current interest. Three lecture hours per week.

CHE 650. SEMINAR-INTERNSHIP. (Variable credit, up to 3). Required for all teaching assistants and for those students planning teaching careers. Prerequisite: consent of department. Consideration of topics and trends in chemical education. Opportunities for supervised experience in the teaching of college chemistry will be offered. Graded Pass/No Credit. May be repeated for credit.

CHE 660. SPECIAL TOPICS AND INVESTIGATIONS. (Variable credit, up to 3). Prerequisite: consent of department. Directed study of topics of current chemical interest. May be repeated for credit.

CHE 680. RESEARCH SEMINAR. (1) Individual investigation and exposition of the results. May be repeated for credit.

CHE 680P. RESEARCH SEMINAR. (1) Discussion of recent developments and special topics in chemistry. Graded Pass/No Credit.

CHE 690. RESEARCH AND THESIS. (Variable credit, up to 16) Laboratory research for the thesis.

MATHEMATICS

Chairman: Professor Schell

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses for Advanced Undergraduates and Graduates

The following junior-senior level courses carry graduate credit for the M.A.Ed. and M.Ed. degrees only.

MAT 311. OPERATIONS RESEARCH I. (3) Prerequisites: MAT 120 and MAT 122 with a grade of C or better. The first course of a two-semester sequence, including matrix algebra, convex sets, linear programming, queuing and the theory of games.

MAT 312. OPERATIONS RESEARCH II. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 311. A continuation of MAT 311.

MAT 322. PROBABILITY AND STATISTICS I. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 241 with a grade of C or better. Continuous and discrete sample spaces, continuous and discrete random variables, moments and moment generating function, functions of random variables, some standard distributions, multivariate variables, laws of large numbers, limit theorems, stochastic processes.

MAT 323. PROBABILITY AND STATISTICS II. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 322. Estimation, bias, consistency, efficiency, method of moments, maximum likelihood estimates, sufficient statistics, testing hypothesis, simple hypothesis, most powerful test, composite hypothesis, the power function, uniformly most powerful test, sequential tests, the sequential likelihood ratio test, some one sample problem the classical chi-square test, the Kolmogorov-Smirnov test.

MAT 341. CALCULUS OF ONE VARIABLE. (3) Prerequisites: MAT 241 and junior class standing. Least upper bound principle; sequences; sequences of functions; topology of the real line; continuity and uniform continuity of functions; differential calculus; Reimann integration.

MAT 346. INTRODUCTION TO COMPLEX ANALYSIS (3) Prerequisites: MAT 241 with a grade of C or better. Analytic function theory; complex integration; sequences; series; residue calculus and conformal mapping.

MAT 360. TOPICS IN ALGEBRA. (2-3 semester hours credit) These two or three hour courses are intended as supplementary courses in the various areas of mathematics and may be proposed by either faculty members or students.

MAT 363. MODERN ALGEBRA I. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 263 or consent of the department. The first course of a two-semester sequence covering groups, rings, fields extensions, root of polynomials and the rudiments of Galois Theory.

MAT 364. MODERN ALGEBRA II. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 363. A continuation of MAT 363. Fields, vector spaces, linear transformations and canonical forms.

MAT 370. TOPICS IN APPLIED MATHEMATICS. (2-3 semester hours credit) These two or three hour courses are intended as supplementary courses in the various areas of mathematics and may be proposed by either faculty members or students.

MAT 371. APPLIED MATHEMATICS I. (3) Prerequisites: MAT 271 and MAT 241 with grades of C or better. Boundary value problems, separation of variables, Fourier series and Fourier transforms, orthogonal functions.

MAT 372. APPLIED MATHEMATICS II. (3) Prerequisites:

MAT 371 with a grade of C or better. A continuation of MAT 371.

MAT 376. NUMERICAL ANALYSIS. (3) Prerequisites: CSC 100, MAT 241 and MAT 271. A treatment of the numerical solution of initial value and boundary value problems in ordinary differential equations. An introduction to the numerical solution of partial differential equations. Direct and iterative methods of solving systems of equations will be developed. Selected problems will be programmed for computer solution.

MAT 380. TOPICS IN GEOMETRY-TOPOLOGY (2-3 semester hours credit) These two or three hour courses are intended as supplementary courses in the various areas of mathematics and may be proposed by either faculty members or students.

MAT 381. FUNDAMENTAL CONCEPTS OF GEOMETRY. (3) Prerequisites: MAT 264 and consent of the department. Foundations of geometry, affine geometry, comparison of Euclidean and non-Euclidean geometries.

MAT 383. INTUITIVE TOPOLOGY. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 241. Introduction to combinatorial topology; topology of E^n ; winding number and applications; homotopies and the fundamental group.

MAT 391. SEMINAR. (1-6) Prerequisite: consent of the department. Readings, study and discussion designed to develop the student's ability to study independently and to present his results properly.

MAT 392. SEMINAR. (1-6) Prerequisite: consent of the department. A continuation of MAT 391.

MAT 409. HISTORY OF MATHEMATICAL THOUGHT. (3) Prerequisite: consent of the department. A study of the development of mathematics in its historical setting from the earliest beginnings to modern times.

MAT 443. ANALYSIS I. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 341 with a grade of C or better or consent of the department. An introduction to metric spaces, including properties of subsets, continuity of functions, pointwise and uniform convergence of functions.

MAT 444. ANALYSIS II. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 443. An introduction to Lebesgue integration and measure theory, starting with a construction of measure for closed and bounded intervals of R and extending to an axiomatic treatment of a general measure on abstract spaces.

MAT 450. SELECTED TOPICS IN MATHEMATICS. (2-3) Prerequisite: consent of the department. Topics chosen from such fields as topology, differential geometry, complex analysis, applied mathematics or modern algebra. May be repeated for credit with the approval of the department.

MAT 481. INTRODUCTION TO TOPOLOGY. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 383 or 341. Topics from set theory and point set topology such as cardinality, order, topological spaces, metric spaces, separation axiom, compactness and connectedness.

MAT 491. SEMINAR (1-6) Prerequisite: consent of the department. Individual investigation and appropriate exposition of the results.

MAT 492. SEMINAR. (1-6) Prerequisite: consent of the department. A continuation of MAT 491.

MAT 503. ARITHMETIC IN THE SCHOOL. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 101 or equivalent. A study of the number systems with emphasis placed upon the basic concepts and meanings, properties of addition, multiplication, inverses, systems of numeration and number line appropriate for each grade. (Does not count toward a major in mathematics. Open only to transfer students who have completed six semester hours of mathematics at another university.)

MAT 522. STATISTICAL TECHNIQUES. (3) Prerequisite: consent of the department. (Credit toward mathematics major given only to teacher education students and not given for both MAT 522 and MAT 322.) Probability models, random variables, large sample statistics, inferential statistics.

MAT 600. FOUNDATIONS OF MATHEMATICS. (3) Prerequisite: consent of the department. Sets, logic and axiomatics with examples drawn from algebra and geometry.

MAT 601. THE NUMBER SYSTEM. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 600 or consent of the department. An axiomatic development of the number system from the natural numbers to the complex numbers.

MAT 603. COMPUTER TECHNIQUES AND NUMERICAL METHODS.

MAT 604. TOPICS IN ANALYSIS. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 601 or consent of the department. A selection of topics forming an axiomatic and rigorous study of analysis, including topics such as linear and affine transformation from E to E, differentiation of functions from E to E, integration theory and introduction to abstract spaces. May be repeated for credit.

MAT 606. MODERN ALGEBRA. (3) Prerequisite: consent of the department. Topics include groups, finitely generated abelian groups, homomorphisms, Sylow theory, rings and ideals, integral domains, fields and polynomials over commutative rings and fields.

MAT 607. LINEAR ALGEBRA. (3) Prerequisite: consent of the department. Topics include systems of linear equations and matrices, vector spaces, linear transformations, determinants, canonical forms of matrices, inner product spaces.

MAT 608. TOPICS IN GEOMETRY—TOPOLOGY. (3) Prerequisite: MAT 601 or consent of the department. A study of selected topics from geometry and topology such as: Euclidean geometry, non-Euclidean geometry, projective geometry, differential geometry, point-set topology, algebraic topology. May be repeated for credit.

MAT 609. SEMINAR. (1, 2 or 3) Prerequisite: admission to candidacy for M.A.Ed. A series of regularly scheduled meetings in which each student will present one or more topics selected by the seminar coordinator. May be repeated for credit.

PHYSICS

Chairman: Professor Pollak

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses for Advanced Undergraduates and Graduates

PHY 321. CLASSICAL MECHANICS I. (3) Prerequisites: PHY 221; MAT 241 and 271. The first course of a two-semester sequence treating particle dynamics, the motion of systems of particles, rigid body motion, moving coordinate systems, Lagrange's equations, Hamilton's equations and small oscillations. Three lecture hours a week.

PHY 331. ELECTROMAGNETIC THEORY I. (3) Prerequisites: PHY 231; MAT 241 and 271. The first course of a two-semester sequence. Topics considered include electrostatics and magnetostatics in free space and in matter, the motion of charged particles in electric and magnetic fields, capacitance, dielectric theory, field energy, electromagnetic induction and inductance, vector and scalar potentials, magnetic properties of matter, Maxwell's equations, solutions of Maxwell's equations in free space and in matter, propagating electromagnetic waves and boundary value problems. Three lecture hours a week.

PHY 341. QUANTUM PHYSICS I. (3) Prerequisites: PHY 231 and 241, MAT 241 and 271, or consent of the department. Empirical necessity for quantum physics. Postulates of quantum physics. Analytical study of quantum physics of the atom. Three lecture hours a week.

PHY 345. STATISTICAL PHYSICS. (3) Prerequisite: PHY 231 and 241 or consent of the department. Introduction to the microscopic foundations for macroscopic systems. Kinetic theory and introductory statistical mechanics. Three lecture hours a week.

PHY 411. NUCLEAR PHYSICS. (3) Prerequisites: PHY 231 and 241 and MAT 271. A study of the nucleus, radioactivity, nuclear reactions, fission, fusion, interactions of radiation with matter and measurement of radiation. Three hours lecture per week.

PHY 421. CLASSICAL MECHANICS II. (3) Prerequisite: PHY 321. Continuation of PHY 321. Three lecture hours a week.

PHY 431. ELECTROMAGNETIC THEORY II. (3) Prerequisite: PHY 331. Continuation of PHY 331. Three lecture hours a week.

PHY 441. QUANTUM PHYSICS II. (3) Prerequisite: PHY 341. Continuation of PHY 341 with selected applications from atomic, molecular, solid state and nuclear physics. Three lecture hours a week.

PHY 495. SELECTED TOPICS IN PHYSICS. (0-4) Prerequisite: consent of the department. Used to comply with requests for more advanced special topics. May be repeated with approval of the department.

College of Social and Behavioral Sciences

Dean: Professor Schul

The Department of Geography and Earth Sciences offers the Master of Arts degree in Geography.

Graduate courses offered by departments of the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences also serve the professional and certification needs of students enrolled in the degree programs of the College of Human Development and Learning. Students enrolled in other graduate programs who meet the prerequisites may elect courses from the graduate offerings of such departments.

Chairman: Professor Stuart

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses for Advanced Undergraduates and Graduates

Geography

GGY 301. GEOGRAPHY OF LATIN AMERICA. (3) A regional study of the basic human and physical differences from place to place which affect economic, social and political conditions of the Latin American countries.

GGY 302. GEOGRAPHY OF POLAR REGIONS. (3) A study of the Arctic and Antarctic regions with particular emphasis on the history of exploration, the physical environment and political significance.

GGY 303. GEOGRAPHY OF ANGLO AMERICA. (3) The geographic structure of the United States and Canada with emphasis on both the physical environment and the patterns of human activities.

GGY 305. GEOGRAPHY OF EUROPE. (3) A regional study of geographic conditions and their relationship to economic, social and political problems in Europe.

GGY 308. GEOGRAPHY OF EAST ASIA. (3) A regional study emphasizing the relationships that exist between the physical environment and the cultural patterns in geographic regions of China, Korea, Japan and the nations of Southeast Asia.

GGY 309. GEOGRAPHY OF SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST ASIA. (3) A regional study emphasizing the relationships that exist between the physical environment and the cultural patterns in geographic regions of the Indian subcontinent and the Arabian peninsula.

GGY 311. POLITICAL GEOGRAPHY. (3) A study of the concepts of political geography as developed through topical studies of political phenomena as related to geographical features. Contemporary problems in international affairs will be considered.

GGY 313. MANUFACTURING GEOGRAPHY. (3) A study of factors relating to the nature, locations and development of manufacturing industries. Emphasis upon location theory, classification of manufacturers, principal areas of manufacturing and other phases of economic geography.

GGY 314. RESOURCE PLANNING. (3) A study of the resources of the United States, especially as they pertain to population, their use and misuses and present conservational practices as they relate to planning for future resource adequacy.

GGY 315. THE REGION AND PLANNING. (3) The regional concept and its application to urban and regional planning. Emphasis to be upon the techniques used in regional analysis.

GGY 316. GEOGRAPHY OF TERTIARY ACTIVITY. (3) A study of the spatial attributes of retail and wholesale activities, service facilities and financial establishments. Emphasis upon location research and delineation of trade and service areas.

GGY 317. THE GEOGRAPHY OF TRANSPORTATION SYSTEMS. (3) The study of those geographical and human factors which affect the movement of goods and people from place to place. Emphasis will be placed on transportation routes and networks, commodity flow patterns and the locational implications of freight rates.

GGY 318. GEOGRAPHY OF PRIMARY ACTIVITIES. (3) A study of the functional and spatial attributes of primary economic activities, including agriculture, fossil fuels and other minerals, forestry and fisheries. Emphasis upon a models approach.

GGY 319. GEOGRAPHY OF INDUSTRIAL ACTIVITY. (3) The analytical study of the principles that affect the geographic distribution of manufacturing activity. Emphasis will be on theory, model building and the practical application of theory to geographic research. Also covered will be the role of industrial activity in regional development and planning. Although not required, students should generally plan to take GGY 313 first.

GGY 320. GEOGRAPHY OF URBAN SYSTEMS. (3) A study of the relationships between the cities and the historical evolution of urban patterns.

GGY 321. GEOGRAPHIC STRUCTURE OF THE CITY. (3) An integrative study of the spatial structure of cities with emphasis on land use patterns and models, transportation systems, residential concentrations, commercial activities and manufacturing zones.

GGY 331. AIR PHOTO INTERPRETATION. (3) Prerequisites: ES 101 or consent of the department. The examination and interpretation of aerial photographs with the aid of stereoscopes. Emphasis is to be placed on the identification of physical and cultural features and their patterns. One lecture hour and two laboratory periods of two hours a week.

GGY 332. ADVANCED CARTOGRAPHY. (3) Prerequisite: GGY 202. Preparation of maps, figures and charts at a professional level of competence. Techniques to be emphasized include scribing and various related photographic processes in addition to conventional pen and ink methods. Two laboratories of three hours each week.

GGY 350. ADVANCED GEOGRAPHIC ANALYSIS. (3) Prerequisite: GGY 203 or consent of instructor. An examination of advanced analytical methods in geography. The course will include multi-variate analysis and complex spatial models. Course will include computer usage.

GGY 402. SELECTED TOPICS IN GEOGRAPHY. (3) Prerequisite: consent of instructor. An intensive study of topics in geography. Topics will be offered from such areas as urban, manufacturing, tertiary activity, transportation, primary activity and political geography. Topics will vary from semester to semester. May be repeated for credit.

GGY 450. INDIVIDUAL STUDY IN GEOGRAPHY. (1-4) Permission of the department must be obtained and credit hours established in advance. May be repeated for credit. Tutorial study or special research problems.

Earth Science

ES 340. FIELD METHODS IN THE EARTH SCIENCES. (3) Prerequisites: ES 101 and 102 or consent of instructor. Introduction to field techniques used in geology, geomorphology, hydrology, soil science, and vegetation surveys. Two hours of lecture and one three-hour lab per week.

ES 341. NATURAL ENVIRONMENTS OF NORTH AMERICA. (3) A study of the physiographic regions of the United States, the genesis and pattern of the major landforms included within each, their distinctive characteristics and their cartographic interpretation.

ES 342. METEOROLOGY. (3) An introduction to atmospheric phenomena, weather producing processes, weather forecasting and weather effects upon man's activities.

ES 343. WEATHER ANALYSIS LABORATORY. (1) Pre- or co-requisite: ES 342 or consent of instructor. An introduction to weather observation and techniques of weather forecasting. One two-hour lab per week.

ES 345. MICROCLIMATE: URBAN ENVIRONMENTS. (3) ES 101 or introductory physics are recommended. Principles of micrometeorology/climatology using examples from urbanized areas.

Analysis of local scale climates and man made modifications of these environments.

ES 346. CLIMATOLOGICAL DATA ANALYSIS. (1) Prerequisite: GGY 203 or Statistics. Pre-or co-requisite: ES 342 or ES 345 or ES 347 or consent of instructor. Methods of acquiring and analyzing climatological data in various types of applied problems. One two-hour lab per week.

ES 347. GLOBAL CLIMATES. (3) The global pattern of climates and climate producing factors. Climatic effects in relation to man and man's effect upon climate.

ES 350. MINERALS AND ROCKS. (4) Formation processes, composition and identification of rocks and minerals in the earth's crust with important abundance or special use. Three lectures and one lab two hours per week.

ES 355. GEOLOGICAL MAPPING AND INTERPRETATION. (4) Prerequisite: ES 102 and ES 350. A field-oriented study of the principles of structural geology and lithology. Two lecture hours and four laboratory hours per week.

ES 361. LANDSCAPE EVOLUTION. (4) Prerequisite: ES 102. Treatment of the processes shaping the earth's surface, genesis of landforms and the theories related to landform development. Three lecture hours and one laboratory period of two hours a week.

ES 365. PHYSICAL AND GEOLOGICAL OCEANOGRAPHY. (3) A study of the ocean environment emphasizing the ocean's place in planet earth's energy exchange systems. Emphasis also on the ocean as a complex solution, topography of the ocean floor, sedimentation and coastline morphology.

ES 370. INTRODUCTION TO ENVIRONMENTAL PROBLEMS. (3) Prerequisite: consent of the instructor. The study of major problems in the human environment.

ES 404. CONCEPT DEVELOPMENT IN EARTH SCIENCE. (3) Prerequisite: consent of the instructor. Examination of major concepts in earth science with emphasis on implementing their instruction at the primary and secondary school levels. One lecture hour and two laboratory periods of two hours each a week.

ES 405. SELECTED TOPICS IN EARTH SCIENCES. (3) Prerequisite: consent of instructor. An in-depth treatment of specific topics selected from one of the fields of the earth sciences, to provide increased specialization in various fields beyond the 300-level course. Topics will vary from semester to semester. May be repeated for credit.

ES 460. INDIVIDUAL STUDY IN EARTH SCIENCES. (1-4) Permission of the department must be obtained and credit hours established in advance. Tutorial study or special research problems. May be repeated for credit.

Courses for Graduate Students Only

GGY 600. GEOGRAPHIC RESEARCH. (6) This course will cover such topics as basic scientific paradigms; problem formulation and definition; proposal preparation and research design including data sources, data collection and data analysis; and description and presentation of the results including organizing and writing up the results, the preparation of graphics and oral presentation. May be required as a prerequisite for certain topics and seminar courses at the discretion of the instructors.

GGY 601. TOPICS IN ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY. (3) Major topics in the location of economic activity examined generally and in a specific local occurrence. May be repeated for credit.

GGY 602. TOPICS IN URBAN GEOGRAPHY. (3) Major topics in the form and structure of urban areas examined generally and in a specific local occurrence. May be repeated for credit.

GGY 603. TOPICS IN POLITICAL GEOGRAPHY. (3) Major topics in the spatial aspects of political systems with special emphasis on urban and regional spatial patterns examined generally and in a specific local occurrence. May be repeated for credit.

GGY 604. TOPICS IN REGIONAL GEOGRAPHY. (3) Intensive examination of major spatial questions in a given region. May be repeated for credit.

GGY 605. TOPICS IN ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES. (3) Major topics concerning the physical environment with emphasis on pollution problems in urban areas examined generally and in a specific local occurrence. May be repeated for credit.

GGY 606. TOPICS IN PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY. (3) Major topics in physical geography examined generally and in a specific local occurrence. May be repeated for credit.

GGY 615. QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS IN GEOGRAPHY. (3) A study of statistical and other quantitative techniques commonly used in geographic research. A knowledge of elementary statistics is assumed.

GGY 616. CARTOGRAPHIC PREPARATION AND ANALYSIS. (3) Cartographic design and analysis of qualitative and quantitative data. Emphasis to be on the preparation of maps, figures and charts. Techniques include scribing and various photographic processes. Two three-hour labs each week.

GGY 650. SEMINAR IN GEOGRAPHY. (3) Study of the current trends in geographic thought and research methods. Pass/No Credit grading.

GGY 651. TOPICS IN GEOGRAPHIC TECHNIQUES. (3) Detailed study of cartographic, remote sensing, quantitative techniques or field techniques. May be repeated for credit.

GGY 680. DIRECTED PROBLEMS IN GEOGRAPHY. (3) Individual research into geographic topics. May be repeated one time.

GGY 690-691. INDIVIDUAL RESEARCH PROJECT. (3-6) Individual research report based on directed study of a topic of geographic significance. Pass/No Credit grading.

Earth Sciences

ES 650. WORKSHOP IN GEOGRAPHY. (4) A. Earth Science I. A series of lectures on the subject matter of the atmosphere and hydrosphere with accompanying laboratory sessions.

ES 651. WORKSHOP IN GEOLOGY. (4) a. Earth Science II. A series of lectures on subject matter of the lithosphere and space science with accompanying laboratory sessions.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Chairman: Professor Lyons

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses for Advanced Undergraduates and Graduates

PSC 301. POLITICAL SOCIALIZATION. (3) The study of the processes by which the political culture of the society is transmitted, formally and informally, to individual members. The course examines the learning process, the agents of socialization, the content of the learning and the consequences of political socialization for the functioning of the political system.

PSC 303. PUBLIC OPINION AND THE MASS MEDIA. (3) The nature and influence of public opinion and the effects of the news media on public opinion and political behavior. The course emphasizes research on the development and content of public opinion and social psychological studies on the process of opinion change.

PSC 305. ELECTORAL BEHAVIOR. (3) An examination of the psychological, sociological and political variables that influence voting behavior and that affect electoral stability and change. The course emphasizes studies derived from survey research.

PSC 307. ETHNIC POLITICS. (3) The role of racial, religious and nationality groups in American politics.

PSC 313. JUDICIAL BEHAVIOR. (3) Recommended prerequisites: PSC 390 or 391 or equivalent. Survey of the empirical studies concerning the determinants of the behaviour of judges.

PSC 318. LAW AND SOCIAL CHANGE. (3) Examines the formulation of desegregation and poverty policies at the national, state and local levels. It studies the interaction of law and social change in these areas of public policy with an emphasis upon the political processes of courts and other legal subsystems.

PSC 321. URBAN POLITICS. (3) Analysis of the political process in the nation's metropolitan areas and the adjustments and responses of the U.S. governmental system in attempting to cope with the urban crisis.

PSC 322. CONTEMPORARY URBAN PROBLEMS. (3) A study of selected urban problems, including an analysis of the causes and consequences of governmental policies designed to cope with these problems. Topics of interest would include: crime and law enforcement, poverty and welfare, urban transportation, education, pollution, housing and redevelopment and urban revenue and expenditure patterns.

PSC 331. THE NATURE OF POLITICAL CHANGE. (3) Comparative study of political change with reference to problems of reform, revolution and nation-building.

PSC 336. COMPARATIVE URBAN POLITICS. (3) Urban growth, urban problems and political response in cross-national perspective. Focus on the urban policy process including political explanations for variations in national urban growth and urban structure. Attention to selected case and comparative studies on the U.S., Europe, Latin America, Africa and Asia.

PSC 343. AFRICAN POLITICS. (3) A comparative perspective on the politics of independence in sub-Saharan Africa and on the performance of the new political systems there in terms of national and international integration and the modernization of traditional societies and economies.

PSC 345. GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS OF THE SOVIET UNION. (3) The origins of Bolshevism and the substance and role of Marxist-Leninist ideology. The structure and functions of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU). The principles of Soviet politics and the instruments of rule. The Soviet political system in transition and its relationship to world communism.

PSC 357. AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY. (3) Systematic study of contemporary American foreign policy-making.

PSC 359. SOVIET FOREIGN POLICY. (3) The concepts, content and evolution of Soviet foreign relations, with emphasis upon change and continuity in Russian and Soviet policies. Contemporary problems of Soviet diplomacy with other world powers and with the Marxist-Leninist nations of the Communist international system.

PSC 383. ADMINISTRATIVE BEHAVIOR. (3) The role of the administrator and public bureaucracy in modern democratic society. Particular attention will be given to the interplay of forces created by executives, legislators, political parties and interest groups.

PSC 384. DECISION MAKING IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION. (3) An examination of the major schools of decision making theory: rationalism, incrementalism and mixed-scanning. The use of these approaches in public administration in areas of budgeting, organization and program design and personnel will be studied, using problem sets and simulation techniques.

PSC 387. URBAN ADMINISTRATION. (3) A study of administration in the context of the urban setting. Attention will be given to urban governmental bureaucracies, their response to and interaction with their environments, and their roles in developing urban policy.

PSC 392. INTRODUCTION TO SURVEY RESEARCH. (3) An examination of the purposes, logic and procedures of survey research in the study of political attitudes and behavior. The major steps in survey research—planning, sampling, questionnaire design, data collection, processing data and analysis—will be reviewed. The student will have an opportunity to apply newly acquired skills in a field situation.

PSC 450. THE ROBERT A. TAFT INSTITUTE OF GOVERNMENT SEMINAR. (3) Open under special arrangement. Pass/No Credit grading.

Chairman: Professor Greenspoon

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses for Advanced Undergraduates and Graduates

PSY 501. PSYCHOLOGY OF EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN. (3) Assessing the exceptional child. Emphasis on current research in several diagnostic categories.

PSY 502. ADJUSTMENT PROBLEMS OF THE DISADVANTAGED. (3) A seminar concerned with such issues as racial attitudes, prejudice and poverty. Assigned reading and discussion deal with the application of psychological principles to these problems. Contributing lecturers with professional experience with problems of the disadvantaged will participate.

PSY 503. PSYCHOLOGY OF MENTAL RETARDATION. (3) An intensive study of the psychological and sociological aspects of mental retardation in relation to adjustment and educational development. Emphasis on current research and diagnostic categories.

PSY 504. TESTS AND MEASUREMENTS. (3) Prerequisite: PSY 101. A survey of psychological and educational measurements in current use. Emphasis will be placed on structure, administration and application of group tests. Individual tests such as Stanford Binet, WISC and WAIS will be reviewed.

PSY 505. ADVANCED PERSONALITY THEORY. (3) A critical evaluation of the major personality theories including an extensive survey of current research.

PSY 514. METHODS OF STUDENT EVALUATION. (3) A practical course of construction of teacher-made evaluation procedures. Special emphasis will be placed on writing and item analysis of essay and restricted-response achievement tests.

Systematic examination of the principal theories and principles of sociocultural change with special emphasis on the evolutionary development of societal types, industrialization and urbanization of American society and transition of developing countries.

UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS

THE EXPECTATION OF THE UNIVERSITY

The University expects from its students a decent respect for other human beings, a regard for the law and a willingness to embrace membership in an academic community.

Some regulations are always necessary in a society of men and women. It is the intent of the University to keep the number of such regulations at a minimum and to depend rather upon the acceptance on the part of each individual of his responsibility as a member of the University.

As members of the student body of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, graduate students are subject to the honor code adopted by that body during the fall semester of 1965, which reads as follows:

> Under the Honor Code you are on your honor not to cheat, lie or steal, and if you see another student doing so, you are on your honor to report the individual and the circumstances to the appropriate student agency.

POLICIES, PROCEDURES AND DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS IN CASES OF DISRUPTION OF EDUCATIONAL PROCESS

The policies, procedures and disciplinary actions which will be followed in cases of disruption of the educational process are set forth in the following:

Section 1. Policies Relating to Disruptive Conduct

The University of North Carolina has long honored the right of free discussion and expression, peaceful picketing and demonstrations, the right to petition and peaceably to assemble. That these rights are a part of the fabric of this institution is not questioned. They must remain secure. It is equally clear, however, that, in a community of learning, willful disruption of the educational process, destruction of property, and interference with the rights of other members of the community cannot be tolerated. Accordingly, it shall be the policy of the University to deal with any such disruption, destruction or interference promptly and effectively, but also fairly and impartially without regard to race, religion, sex or political beliefs.

Section 2. Definition of Disruptive Conduct

(a) Any faculty member (the term "faculty member," wherever used in this statement, shall include regular faculty members, full-time instructors, lecturers and all other persons exempt from the North Carolina State Personnel System [Chapter 126 of the General Statutes as amended] who receive compensation for teaching, or other instructional functions, or research at the University), any graduate student engaged in the instructional program, or any student who, with the intent to obstruct or disrupt any normal operation or function of the University or any of its component institutions, engages, or incites others to engage, in individual or collective conduct which destroys or significantly damages any University property, or which impairs or threatens impairment of the physical well-being of any member of the University community, or which, because of its violent, forceful, threatening or intimidating nature or because it restrains freedom of lawful movement, otherwise prevents any member of the University community from conducting his normal activities within the University, shall be subject to prompt and appropriate disciplinary action, which may include suspension, expulsion, discharge or dismissal from the University.

The following, while not intended to be exclusive, illustrate the offenses encompassed herein, when done for the purpose of obstructing or disrupting any normal operation or function of the University or any of its component institutions: (1) occupation of any University building or part thereof with intent to deprive others of its normal use; (2) blocking the entrance or exit of any University building or corridor or room therein with intent to deprive others of lawful access to or from, or use of, said building or corridor or room; (3) setting fire to or by any other means destroying or substantially damaging any University building or property, or the property of others on University premises; (4) any possession or display of, or attempt or threat to use, for any unlawful purpose, any weapon, dangerous instrument, explosive, or inflammable material in any University building or on any University campus; (5) prevention of, or attempt to prevent by physical act, the attending, convening, continuation or orderly conduct of any University class or activity or of any lawful meeting or assembly in any University building or on any University campus; and (6) blocking normal pedestrian or vehicular traffic on or into any University campus.

(b) Any person engaged in the instructional program who fails or refuses to carry out validly assigned duties, with the intent to obstruct or disrupt any normal operation or function of the University or any of its component institutions, shall be subject to prompt and appropriate disciplinary action under this policy if (but only if) his status is such that he is not subject to the provisions of any trustee or Board of Governors policies governing suspension and discharge of faculty members.

Section 3. Responsibilities of Chancellors

(a) When any chancellor has cause to believe that any of the provisions of this policy have been violated, he shall forthwith investigate or cause to be investigated the occurrence, and upon identification of the parties involved shall promptly determine whether any charge is to be made with respect thereto.

(b) If he decides that a charge is to be made, he shall, within thirty (30) days after he has information as to the identity of the alleged perpetrator of the offense but in no event more than twelve (12) months after the occurrence of the alleged offense, (i) refer the case to the appropriate existing University judicial body, or (ii) refer the matter to a Hearing Committee drawn from a previously selected Hearing Panel which, under this option, is required to implement action for violation of Section 2 (a) or (b) of this statement. If the case is referred to an existing University judicial body under (i) above, the procedural rules of that body shall be followed, and subsections (c) through (f) below shall not be applicable. If the matter is referred to a Hearing Committee under (ii) above, the procedural rules prescribed in subsections (c) through (f) below shall be followed.

(c) The accused shall be given written notice by personal service or registered mail, return receipt requested, stating:

(1) The specific violation of this policy with which the accused is charged.

(2) The designated time and place of the hearing on the charge by the Hearing Committee, which time shall be not earlier than seven (7) nor later than ten (10) days following receipt of the notice.

(3) That the accused shall be entitled to the presumption of innocence until found guilty, the right to retain counsel, the right to present the testimony of witnesses and other evidence, the right to cross-examine all witnesses against him, the right to examine all documents and demonstrative evidence adverse to him, and the right to transcript of the proceedings of the hearing.

(d) The Hearing Committee shall determine the guilt or innocence of the accused. If the person charged is found guilty, the Hearing Committee shall recommend to the chancellor such discipline as said body determines to be appropriate. After considering such recommendation the chancellor shall prescribe such discipline as he deems proper. In any event, whether the person is found guilty or not guilty, a written report shall be made by the chancellor to the president within ten (10) days.

(e) Any person found guilty shall have ten (10) days after notice of such finding in which to appeal to the president of the University. Such an appeal if taken shall be upon the grounds set forth in Section 5.

(f) Any accused person who, without good cause, shall fail to appear at the time and place for the hearing of his case by the Hearing Committee shall be suspended indefinitely or discharged from University employment.

(g) A chancellor, unless so ordered or otherwise prevented by court, shall not be precluded from carrying out his duties under this policy by reason of any pending action in any state or federal court. Should a delay occur in prosecuting the charge against the accused because the accused or witnesses that may be necessary to a determination of the charge are involved in state or federal court actions, the time limitations set forth above in this Section 3 shall not apply.

(h) Conviction in any state or federal court shall not preclude the University or any of its officers from exercising disciplinary action in any offense referred to in this policy.

(i) Nothing contained in this policy shall preclude the president or any chancellor from taking any other steps, including injunctive relief or other legal action, which he may deem advisable to protect the best interests of the University.

Section 4. Aggravated Acts or Threatened Repetition of Acts

(a) The chancellor of each of the component institutions of the University shall appoint an Emergency Consultative Panel which shall be composed of not less than three (3) nor more than five (5) faculty members and not less than three(3) nor more than five (5) students who shall be available to advise with the chancellor in any emergency. No member of such panel shall serve for more than one (1) year unless he be reappointed by the chancellor. The chancellor may make appointments, either temporary or for a full year, to fill any vacancies which may exist on the panel.

(b) If, in the judgment of the chancellor, there is clear and convincing evidence that a person has committed any of the acts prohibited under this policy which, because of the aggravated character or probable repetition of such act or acts, necessitates immediate action to protect the University from substantial interference with any of its orderly operations or functions or to prevent threats to or acts which endanger life or property, the chancellor, with the concurrence as hereinafter provided of the Emergency Consultative Panel established pursuant to (a) above, may forthwith suspend such person from the University and bar him from the University campus; provided, however, that in the event of such suspension, whether personally or by registered mail addressed to his last known addresses, and shall be afforded a prompt hearing, which, if requested, shall be commenced within ten (10) days of the suspension. Except for purposes of attending personally any hearings conducted under this policy, the bar against the appearance of the accused on the University campus shall remain in effect until final judgment has been rendered in his case and all appellant proceedings have been concluded, unless such restriction is earlier lifted by written notice from the chancellor.

(c) A quorum of the Emergency Consultative Panel provided for in (a) above shall consist of not less than four(4) of its members, and the required concurrence shall have been obtained if a majority of such quorum shall indicate their concurrence. The chancellor shall meet personally with members of such panel at the time he seeks concurence, if it is feasible to do so. However, if the circumstances are such that the chancellor deems it not to be feasible to personally assemble such members, then he may communicate with them or the required number of them individually by telephone or by such other means as he may choose to employ, in which event he may proceed as provided in (b) above after the required majority of such members have communicated their concurrence to him.

(d) In the chancellor's absence or inability to act, the president may exercise the powers of the chancellor specified in this section in the same manner and to the same extent as could the chancellor but for such absence or inability to act.

Section 5. Right of Appeal

Any person found guilty of violating the provisions of this policy by the Hearing Committee referred to in Section 3 shall have the right to appeal the finding and the discipline imposed upon him to the president of the University. Any such appeal shall be in writing, shall be based solely upon the record, and shall be limited to one or more of the following grounds.

(1) That the finding is not supported by substantial evidence;

(2) That a fair hearing was not accorded the accused; or

(3) That the discipline imposed was excessive or inappropriate.

It shall be the responsibility of the president to make prompt disposition of all such appeals, and his decision shall be rendered within thirty (30) days after receipt of the complete record on appeal.

Section 6. No Amnesty

No administrative official, faculty member, or student of the University shall have authority to grant amnesty or to make any promise as to prosecution or non-prosecution in any court, state or federal, or before any student, faculty, administrative, or trustee committee to any person charged with or suspected of violating Section 2 (a) or (b).

Section 7. Publication

The provisions of this policy shall be given wide dissemination in such manner as the president or chancellors may deem advisable, and shall be printed in the official catalogs which may be issued by each component institution of the University.

FIREARMS AND OTHER WEAPONS PROHIBITED

An act to protect persons on the property of any public or private educational institution from persons carrying firearms or other weapons was enacted by the 1971 General Assembly. This act, which is in full force and effect on the UNC campus, is as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to possess, or carry, whether openly or concealed, any gun, rifle, dynamite cartridge, bomb, grenade, mine, powerful explosive as defined in G.S. 14-284.1, bowie knife, blackjack, metallic knuckles or any other weapon of like kind, not used solely for instructional or school sanctioned ceremonial purposes, in any public or private school building or bus, or any public or private school campus, grounds, recreation area, athletic field, or other property owned, used or operated by any board of education, school, college, or university board of trustees or directors for the administration of any public or private educational institution. For the purpose of this section a self-opening or switch-blade knife is defined as a knife containing a blade or blades which open automatically by the release of a spring or a similar contrivance, and the above phrase "weapon of like kind" includes razors and razor blades (except solely for personal shaving) and any sharp pointed or edged instrument except unaltered nail files and clips and tools used solely for preparation of food, instruction and maintenance. This section shall not apply to the following persons: officers and enlisted personnel of the armed forces of the United States when in discharge of their official duties as such and acting under orders requiring them to carry arms or weapons, civil officers of the United States while in the discharge of their official duties, officers and soldiers of the militia and the national guard when called into actual service, officers of the state, or of any county, city, or town, charged with the execution of the laws of the state when acting in the discharge of their official duties, any pupils who are members of the Reserve Officer Training Corps and who are required to carry arms or weapons in the discharge of their official class duties.

Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon convicton shall be punished in the discretion of the court by fine or imprisonment or by both such fine and imprisonment, not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) fine or six months imprisonment.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

State law regulates the possession and use of alcoholic beverages. Excessive and/or inappropriate uses, as defined by state law, are punishable by criminal penalty. Also, because the University community presents a separate and special context in which an environment compatible with academic endeavors must be preserved, additional University regulation of the possession and use of alcoholic beverages on campus is necessary and proper.

It shall be the responsibility of the chancellor or his delegate to adopt and enforce regulations covering the possession and use of alcoholic beverages on the campus of the University.

DRUG ABUSE

The illicit and improper use of certain drugs (for example, cannabis, amphetamines, barbiturates, opiates and hallucinogenic drugs) is incompatible with personal welfare and the pursuit of academic excellence and will not be tolerated by the University. Furthermore, the illicit possession or transfer of these drugs is a state and/or federal offense, and the University will cooperate fully with appropriate authorities in the enforcement of the law.

The fundamental concern and responsibility of the University relative to the abuser of drugs is constructive rehabilitation. Within the limitations imposed by law, (Chapter 90, Section 111.3, and Section 113.6, Narcotic Drug Act, for example) the University will promote a program of education and encourage medical consultation in order to meet this responsibility. But it will act firmly through formal disciplinary procedures to control drug abuse in those instances where these measures prove insufficient.

Disciplinary action relative to drug abuse in the University will be administered by the University Discipline Committee.
